Sonia Delaunay : the Life of an Artist Stanley Baron, 1995 Sonia Delaunay - The Life of an Artist Stanley Baron, 1995 Sonia Delaunay Sonia Delaunay, 1986 Like many champions of Modernism Sonia Delaunay believed that art should be used to redecorate modern life and that design should be truly artistic By applying the bright colors of the peasant costumes from her native Russia to the elegant silhouettes that were currently in vogue in Paris she translated theory into practice and produced a stunning series of clothes for the Jazz Age Like the contemporary Orphist paintings created by her husband Robert Sonia Delaunay's designs are characterized by their vibrant colors and sharply patterned geometric collages They were worn by starlets Gloria Swanson and Gaby her imaginative theater costumes were commissioned by another great advocate of Modernism Diaghilev for the Ballet Russes Indeed Sonia Delaunay's clothing as exalted in the poetry of Tristan Tzara and Guillaume Apollinaire epitomized the spirit of the new age Sonia Delaunay Cara Manes, Fátima Ramos, 2017-08-22 Sonia Delaunay made enormous contributions to the development of abstraction in the early 1900s Sonia Delaunay Art Is Life introduces young audiences to her art as Sonia and her six year old Charles embark on a magical road trip in their car modelled after Sonia's 1925 design for a Citroën convertible Together they glide into a landscape made up of colours and shapes drawn from Sonia's early abstract compositions almost as if they've entered one of her paintings Along the road they make pit stops at sites that inspired some of Sonia's key paintings of this period such as the dance hall depicted in her 1913 work Bal Bulier and the open air Portuguese market that was the subject of her 1915 painting March au Minho Sonia and Charles also explore her gorgeous and colourful designs for fabrics and clothing Through these encounters Sonia helps her son understand her artistic process of abstracting from reality by asking Charles what shapes and colours he discerns within these subjects Their journey ends back in the real world and Charles realizes that his mother's thinking about art permeates every aspect of their life Sonia Delaunay Rachel Silveri, Cécile Godefroy, Gail Levin, Margarete Zimmermann, Hilde D'haeyere, Steven Jacobs, Tamar Kharatishvili, Celeste Day Moore, Dirk Van Oost, Ruth Hommelen, Maude Bass-Krueger, Marjan Sterckx, Werner Adriaenssens, Kasia Stempniak, Noah Dubay, Emilie Hammen, Laurent Cotta, Christoph Benjamin Schulz, Geoffrey Ripert, Kaat Obbels, Patrick Raynaud, 2024-02-20 A richly crafted tribute to the avant garde artist and designer Sonia Delaunay whose boundary breaking approach is echoed in the volume's interdisciplinarity and its inspired design. Described as the most significant contribution to Sonia Delaunay studies in a decade, this catalogue sets a new standard for the study of this pioneering avant garde artist, designer and entrepreneur. 1885-1979. Eschewing traditional chronological structures to better showcase groundbreaking research unifying the artist's timeless oeuvre across mediums, this publication demonstrates Delaunay's innate versatility and willingness to create without material limitation using her unique language of light and color. Textiles, fashion, interiors, book art and more are highlighted across 26 chapters by leading international scholars to give new insight into Delaunay's strategies of self-promotion, entrepreneurial endeavors, legacy building efforts and vast network of collaborators. These in-depth analyses, including previously underinvestigated material such as film, mosaics, tapestries and interior design, offer a comprehensive perspective on Delaunay's lifelong effort to unite art with life by harnessing the energy of technological advancement and the beauty of artisanal craftsmanship. Finally, an appendix provides a unique personal note, an epilogue by Patrick Raynaud, the last living member of Delaunay's atelier, is a touching firsthand account of the artist's working practices toward the end of her life. The design by award-winning book creator Irma Boom embraces Sonia Delaunay's own approach to layout and typography, rendering a book that unites past and present to become a work of art in its own right. Distributed for the Bard Graduate Center Exhibition Schedule, Bard Graduate Center, New York, February 23-July 7, 2024. Sonia Delaunay Axel Madsen, 2015-03-17. Sonia Delaunay, wife of painter Robert Delaunay and co-founder of the Orphist school in 1910, was the center of a brilliant circle in Paris. Madsen offers a rich and compelling look at this fascinating and influential woman, the first living female artist to have a retrospective show at the Louvre. Visions of the Human Tom Slevin, 2015-05-28. In what ways do the artistic avant garde's representations of the human body reflect the catastrophe of World War I? The European modernists were inspired by developments in the nineteenth century, yielding new forms of knowledge about the nature of reality and repositioning the human body as the new object of knowledge. New visions of the human subject were created within this transformation. However, modernity's reactionary political climate for which World War I provided a catalyst transformed a once liberal ideal between humanity, environment and technology into a tool of disciplinary rationalisation. Visions of the Human considers the consequences of this historical moment for the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. It explores the ways in which the technologies of the self that inspired the avant garde were increasingly instrumentalised by conservative politics, urbanism, consumer capitalism and the society of the spectacle. This is an engaging and powerful study which challenges prior ideas and explores new ways of thinking about modern visual culture. Concise Dictionary of Women Artists Delia Gaze, 2013-04-03. This book includes some 200 complete entries from the award-winning Dictionary of Women Artists as well as a selection of introductory essays from the main volume.
