Sorrow Beyond Dreams:

A Sorrow Beyond Dreams Peter Handke, 2013-03-26 My mother has been dead for almost seven weeks I had better go to work before the need to write about her which I felt so strongly at her funeral dies away and I fall back into the dull speechlessness with which I reacted to the nerves of her suicide So begins Peter Handke's extraordinary confrontation with his mother's death In a painful and courageous attempt to deal with the almost intolerable horror of her suicide he sets out to piece together the facts of her life as he perceives them What emerges is a loving portrait of inconsolable grief a woman whose lively spirit has been crushed not once but over and over again by the miseries of her place and time Yet well into middle age living in the Austrian village of her birth she still remains haunted by her dreams A Sorrow Beyond Dreams Peter Handke, 1975 My mother has been dead for almost seven weeks I had better get to work before the need to write about her which I felt so strongly at her funeral dies away So begins Peter Handke's extraordinary confrontation with his mother's death In a painful and courageous attempt to deal with the horror of her suicide he sets out to piece together the facts of her life What emerges is a loving portrait of inconsolable grief a woman whose lively spirit has been crushed by the miseries of her place and time *SORROW BEYOND DREAMS: A LIFE STORY. Metabiography Caitríona Ní Dhúill, 2020-03-09 This book explores the contradictions of biography It charts shifting approaches to the writing and reading of biographies from post hagiographical attitudes of the Enlightenment heroic biographies of Romanticism and irreverent modernist portraits through to contemporary experiments in politically committed and hybrid forms of life writing The book shows how biographical texts in fact destabilise the models of historical visibility cultural prominence and narrative coherence that the genre itself seems to uphold Addressing the fraught relationships between genre and gender private and public image and text life and narrative that play out in the modern biographical tradition Metabiography suggests new possibilities for reading writing and thinking about this enduringly popular genre

This book examines contemporary approaches to adaptation in theatre through seventeen international case studies. It explores company and directorial approaches to adaptation through analysis of the work of Kneehigh, Mabou Mines, Robert Le Page, and Katie Mitchell. It then moves on to look at the transformation of the novel onto the stage in the work of Mitchell and in The Red Badge of Courage, The Kite Runner, Anne Frank and Fanny Hill. Next, it examines contemporary radical adaptations of Trojan Women and The Iliad. Finally, it looks at five different approaches to postmodern metatheatrical adaptation in early modern texts of Hamlet, The Changeling and Faustus, as well as the work of the Neo-Futurists and the mash-up Medea Macbeth Cinderella. Overall, this comprehensive study offers insights into key productions, ideas about approaches to adaptation, and current debates on fidelity, postmodernism, and remediation.

Like Love Maggie Nelson, 2024-04-02
A career-spanning collection of inspiring, revelatory essays about art and artists. Like Love is a momentous, raucous collection of essays drawn from twenty years of Maggie Nelson's brilliant work. These profiles, reviews, remembrances, tributes, and critical essays, as well as several conversations with friends and idols, bring to life Nelson's passion for dialogue and dissent. The range of subjects is wide, from Prince to Carolee Schneemann to Matthew Barney to Lhasa de Sela to Kara Walker, but certain themes recur: intergenerational exchange, love and friendship, feminist and queer issues, especially as they shift over time, subversion, transgression, and perversity, the roles of the critic and of language in relation to visual and performance arts, forces that feed or impede certain bodies and creators, and the fruits and follies of a life spent devoted to making. Arranged chronologically, Like Love shows the writing, thinking, feeling, reading, looking, and conversing that occupied Nelson while writing iconic books such as Bluets and The Argonauts. As such, it is a portrait of a time, an anarchic party rich with wild guests, a window into Nelson's own development, and a testament to the profound sustenance offered by art and artists.

PEN America 14: The Good Books , True Relations G. Thomas Couser, Joseph Fichtelberg, 1998-01-21
The essays in this collection explore new directions in autobiography studies. Examining a wide range of texts from narratives of suicide survivors, cross-dressers, and people with HIV/AIDS to self-representations in the visual arts, the collection demonstrates how writers have used the postmodern experience of fragmentation to forge new kinds of identities. Postmodern selves, the essayists argue, are relational selves constructed from the acute need to find identity through collaboration with others. Postmodern autobiography emerges as a search amid shocks to the stable self for wider patterns of significance. Of interest to researchers and scholars in autobiography, world literature, and psychology.
