

The background of the book cover is a painting of a harbor at night. In the foreground, the dark water of the harbor is broken by several bright, glowing lights that create concentric ripples. In the middle ground, a long pier or breakwater extends into the water, with numerous small lights reflecting on its surface. In the far distance, a city skyline is visible against a dark, cloudy sky, with a few prominent towers or spires. The overall mood is serene yet vibrant, capturing the essence of a bustling port at night.

component The seventeenth century has long seemed a bleak moment in Central European culture Neville's authoritative and unprecedented study does much to change this perception showing that the arts did not die in the Reformation and Thirty Years War but rather flourished in the Baltic region
