Sound Practice 5 Sound Practice:

Transcultural Sound Practices Carla J. Maier, 2020-02-06 Listening to the sound practices of bands and musicians such as the Asian Dub Foundation or M I A and spanning three decades of South Asian dance music production in the UK Transcultural Sound Practices zooms in on the concrete sonic techniques and narrative strategies in South Asian dance music and investigates sound as part of a wider assemblage of cultural technologies politics and practices Carla J Maier investigates how sounds from Hindi film music tunes or bhangra tracks have been sampled cut looped and manipulated thus challenging and complicating the cultural politics of sonic production Rather than conceiving of music as a representation of fixed cultures this book engages in a study of music that disrupts the ways in which ethnicity has been written into sound and investigates how transcultural sound practices generate new ways of thinking about culture Sound Practice Lyn

Layton, Karen Deeny, 2013-08-16 The second edition of Sound Practice looks afresh at how young children can be helped to discover basic facts about an alphabetic spelling system within the context of their developing spoken language It examines why children might fail to understand letter sound links the origins of severe and persistent difficulties with achieving functional literacy skills and developmental processes underpinning the areas of learning identified in national initiatives for promoting children s learning The book also discusses the need for differentiation strategies to respond to individual children s learning needs within national initiatives and techniques and approaches that can be effectively applied to fulfil curriculum objectives Phonological awareness is the key to independent literacy and must be explicitly tackled in the classroom in order to promote early reading and writing and to address written language difficulties in older children This book is a suitable resource for initial and in service training for teachers and teaching assistants and includes photocopyable worksheets

Climate Resilient Cities Neeraj Prasad, Federica Raghieri, Fatima Shah, Zoe Trohanis, Earl Kessler, Ravi Sinha, 2009-02-19 Climate Resilient Cities A Primer on Reducing Vulnerabilities to Disasters provides city administrators with exactly what they need to know about the complex and compelling challenges of climate change The book helps local governments create training capacity building and capital investment programs for building sustainable resilient communities A step by step self assessment challenges policymakers to think about the resources needed to combat natural disasters through an innovative hot spot risk and vulnerability identification tool This primer is unique from other resources in its treatment of climate change using a dual track approach that integrates both mitigation lowering contributions to greenhouse gases and adaptation preparing for impacts of climate change with disaster risk management The book is relevant both to cities that are just beginning to think about climate change as well as those that already have well established policies institutions and strategies in place By providing a range of city level examples of sound practices around the world the book demonstrates that there are many practical actions that cities can take to build resilience to climate change and natural disasters Let's Learn Japanese with Hiragana and Katakana Masumi Kai, 2014-10-16 This book aims to teach Japanese characters step by step whilst also simultaneously highlighting vocabulary needed by beginners Each word comes with an illustration to facilitate the reader s visual learning The book also contains information on how to write a sentence by using the characters and vocabulary presented to the reader and contains exercises that teachers can use as homework The attached CD contains the sounds of each character vocabulary exercises and instructions on how to type in Japanese The exercises correspond closely with the book and learners can practice after learning every ten characters
