Suicide Notes Antoon A. Leenaars,1988      Discourses of Men's Suicide Notes Dariusz Galasinski,2017-10-19 Deaths by suicide are high every 40 seconds someone in the world chooses to end their life Despite acknowledgement that suicide notes are social texts there has been no book which analyzes suicide notes as discursive texts and no attempt at a qualitative discourse analysis of them Discourses of Men's Suicide Notes redresses this gap in the literature Focussing on men and masculinity and anchored in qualitative discourse analysis Dariusz Galasinski responds to the need for a more thorough understanding of suicidal behaviour Culturally men have been posited to be masters of the universe and yet some choose to end their lives This book takes a qualitative approach to data gathered from the Polish Corpus of Suicide Notes a unique repository of over 600 suicide notes to explore discourse from and about men at the most traumatic juncture of their lives Discussing how men construct suicide notes and the ways in which they position their relationships and identities within them Discourses of Men's Suicide Notes seeks to understand what these notes mean and what significance and power they are invested with      Teenage Suicide Notes Terry Williams,2017-02-21 Picturing myself dying in a way I choose myself seems so comforting healing and heroic I'd look at my wrists watch the blood seeping and be a spectator in my last act of self determination By having lost all my self respect it seems like the last pride I own determining the time I die Kyra V seventeen Reading the confessions of a teenager contemplating suicide is uncomfortable but we must do so to understand why self harm has become epidemic especially in the United States What drives teenagers to self harm What makes death so attractive so liberating and so inevitable for so many In Teenage Suicide Notes sociologist Terry Williams pores over the writings of a diverse group of troubled youths to better grasp the motivations behind teenage suicide and to humanize those at risk of taking their own lives Williams evaluates young people in rural and urban contexts and across lines of race class gender and sexual orientation His approach which combines sensitive portrayals with sociological analysis adds a clarifying dimension to the fickle and often frustrating behavior of adolescents Williams reads between the lines of his subjects seemingly straightforward reflections on alienation agency euphoria and loss and investigates how this cocktail of emotions can lead to suicide or not Rather than treating these notes as exceptional examples of self expression Williams situates them at the center of teenage life linking them to abuse violence depression anxiety religion peer pressure sexual identity and family dynamics He captures the currents that turn self destruction into an act of self determination and proposes more effective solutions to resolving the suicide crisis      Comprehensive Textbook of Suicidology Alan Lee Berman,Morton M.
