Sultanas Dream And Padmarag Paperback:

Sultana's Dream and Padmarag Rokeya Hossain, 2022-08-09 One of the first science fiction utopian stories and one of the first feminist utopias by celebrated pioneering feminist educator activist and Bengali writer Rokeya Hossain A Penguin Classics Edition Sultana a Muslim woman living in colonial India falls asleep and wakes up in a transformed future world a utopia in which men rather than women are relegated to the domestic sphere Women now free to explore the outside world at will and pursue an education run a peaceful and just society using scientific principles to harvest energy from the sun and live in harmony with nature Sultana's Dream was published in 1905 in the Indian Ladies Magazine the first English language periodical edited by and targeted at Indian women Like the periodical the story broke new ground As a pioneering work of science fiction and feminist utopian literature at the turn of the century Sultana's Dream is strikingly advanced in its critique of patriarchy war industrialization and the exploitation of the natural world speaking to the concerns of our contemporary world as much as its own At a time when British colonialism was using the treatment of women in India as justification for colonial intervention there Hossain's story in imagining a world in which men rather than women are kept inside positions her protest against Islamic patriarchy within a larger feminist vision that takes on Western as well as Islamic forms of gender hierarchy Her novella Padmarag is similarly utopian in its depiction of a women run school and welfare center and is both feminist and anti colonial in its outlook In both these works Hossain seizes the critique of gender roles in India away from Western commentators and turns it against British interference while also enlarging the critique to take on the problem of gender more broadly

Sultana's Dream Rokeyā (Begama), 2005 Widely regarded as Bengal's earliest and boldest feminist writer Rokeya Sakhawat Hossain 1880-1932 was a pioneering and creative educationist and social activist and the school she founded in Kolkata the Sakhawat Memorial School for Girls still thrives Sultana's Dream written in English 1905 is a delightful satirical work set in Ladyland where the men are in purdah and the women go out and work An extraordinary novella with generous dashes of melodrama and romance disasters and coincidences Padmarag written in Bengali 1924 and translated here for the first time describes a female founded and female administered community set in contemporary Bengal where women from diverse regions and ethnicities with unhappy histories of patriarchal oppression better their lot by concrete social action Both Sultana's Dream and Padmarag discuss in playful fascinating and intelligent ways the question of women's education

A History of the Indian Novel in English Ulka Anjaria, 2015-07-08 A History of the Indian Novel in English traces the development of the Indian novel from its beginnings in the late nineteenth century up until the present day Beginning with an extensive introduction that charts important theoretical contributions to the field this History includes extensive essays that shed light on the legacy of English in Indian writing Organized thematically these essays examine how English was made Indian by writers who used the language to address specifically Indian concerns Such concerns revolved around the question of what it means to be modern as well as how the novel could be used for anti colonial activism By the 1980s the Indian novel in English was a global phenomenon and India is now the third largest publisher of English language books Written by a host of leading scholars this History invites readers to question conventional accounts of India s literary history The Penguin Modern Classics Book Henry Eliot,2021-11-18 The essential guide to twentieth century literature around the world For six decades the Penguin Modern Classics series has been an era defining ever evolving series of books encompassing works by modernist pioneers avant garde iconoclasts radical visionaries and timeless storytellers This reader s companion showcases every title published in the series so far with more than 1 800 books and 600 authors from Achebe and Adonis to Zamyatin and Zweig It is the essential guide to twentieth century literature around the world and the companion volume to The Penguin Classics Book Bursting with lively descriptions surprising reading lists key literary movements and over two thousand cover images The Penguin Modern Classics Book is an invitation to dive in and explore the greatest literature of the last hundred years Saraswati Social Science Class 10 Arti Arora, A text book on Social Science Rewriting Resistance: Caste and Gender in Indian Literature Rakibul Islam,Jakir Hossain,2022-05-10 Rewriting Resistance Caste and Gender in Indian Literature explores the claustrophobic shadow of discrimination hanging over Indian women and lower caste people from ancient times It examines how different literary figures paint a vivid and descriptive picture of the physical and psychological oppression faced throughout India The book traces feminist resistance subaltern resistance and resistance during the anti colonial struggle with the literary outputs discussed working as socio political activity against dominant ideologies The volume further talks about the responsibility not only of those oppressed but also of us as human beings to speak out against the violation of human rights and for justice So the book focuses on the literary writers who always dream of a better India where all people regardless of their caste class and gender can live and breathe freely The book is divided into three parts Part I describes the plight of women their commodification and the politics around them and how they fight hard to regain their faded identity Part II depicts the interesting findings on gender caste intersections and discrimination Part III explores the struggle of the low caste specifically male members of Dalit community along with their history It further portrays how orthodoxy in rituals creates the burden of traditional and existential crises Rewriting Resistance Caste and Gender in Indian Literature re visits Indian literary texts in terms of what they reveal about the resistance registered through the suffering of human beings women and Dalits at the hands of fellow human beings and further links the discussion to our contemporary situation The book has a unique quality in that it is not only a detailed study of select Indian English texts but also delves into an in depth analysis of texts from Bengali Urdu and Hindi literature The work is likely to affect and appeal to students scholars and academics and can be adopted for classroom teaching and research purposes as well A Critical Study of the Novels Dr. Roshan Benjamin Khan, 2016-03-23 This is a comparative study of the unaccredited yet formidable five major Indian Muslim women novelists Rokeya Sakhawat Hossain Zeenuth Futehally Iqbalunnisa Hussain Tara Ali Baig and Attia Hossain The book explores their work with regard to themes like patriarchy feminism religiosity nationality secularity and above all liberty Their contribution to the growth of novel writing in English cannot go ignored as they created a momentum in writing novel using English language as a medium of combined feminist statements with a message to liberate Muslim women from religious conventions social taboos and a male dominated world The study of their novels also makes us aware of the grit and determination and the sheer hunger of these writers to make their mark to speak out unequivocally against prejudice basically to enlighten us how their personalities were shaped and eventually established Their sensitivities as women give an edge to the entire narrative as does their unprecedented and undaunted dare to the oppressors In the great tradition of modern and postmodern fiction our writers use their pen to stand up against inequality of any kind and to undo the stereotypes leading themselves by example East Pakistan Year Book , 1958 Social Science

Dr Malti Malik and Mala Aggarwal, A book on social science
