Ng, Philip Holden, 2006-07-01 Reading Chinese Transnationalisms responds to the growing interest in transnational cultural studies by examining Chinese transnationalism from a variety of perspectives In interrogating social practices and literary and filmic texts which frequently cross national borders in imagining Chineseness the contributors to this volume also challenge received notions of Chinese transnationalism opening up new perspectives on the topic The structure of the book is clearly subdivided into sections on society literature and films for quick reference and each essay is written in accessible language without sacrificing intellectual rigor and critical relevance The international list of contributors and the wide ranging subjects they address make Reading Chinese Transnationalisms a unique work in its field This volume will appeal to all with an interest in Chinese transnationalism and in particular those who come from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds in the humanities and social science Visions of Dystopia in China's New Historical Novels Jeffrey C.

Kinkley,2014-11-18 The depiction of personal and collective suffering in modern Chinese novels differs significantly from standard Communist accounts and many Eastern and Western historical narratives Writers such as Yu Hua Su Tong Wang Anyi Mo Yan Han Shaogong Ge Fei Li Rui and Zhang Wei skew and scramble common conceptions of China s modern development deploying avant garde narrative techniques from Latin American and Euro American modernism to project a surprisingly un Chinese dystopian vision and critical view of human culture and ethics The epic narratives of modern Chinese fiction make rich use of magical realism surrealism and unusual treatments of historical time Also featuring graphic depictions of sex and violence as well as dark raunchy comedy these novels reflect China s recent history re presenting the overthrow of the monarchy in the early twentieth century and the resulting chaos of revolution and war the recurring miseries perpetrated by class warfare during the dictatorship of Mao Zedong and the social dislocations caused by China s industrialization and rise as a global power This book casts China s highbrow historical novels from the late 1980s to the first decade of the twenty first century as a distinctively Chinese contribution to the form of the global dystopian novel and consequently to global thinking about the interrelations of utopia and dystopia Morningstar Ann Hood,2017-08-01 An enchanted journey through Ann Hood s early fascination with reading Book lovers will find Morningstar irresistible Lynn Sharon Schwartz author of Ruined by Reading Growing up in a mill town in Rhode Island in a household that didn t foster a love of reading novelist Ann Hood discovered nonetheless the transformative power of literature She learned to channel her imagination ambitions and curiosity by devouring ever growing stacks of books In Morningstar Hood recollects with warmth and honesty how The Bell Jar Marjorie Morningstar The Harrad Experiment and The Outsiders influenced her teen psyche and introduced her to topics that could not be discussed at home desire fear sexuality and madness Later Johnny Got His Gun and Grapes of Wrath dramatically influenced her political thinking while the Vietnam War and Kent State shootings became headline news and classics such as Dr Zhivago and Les Mis rables stoked her ambitions to travel the world With characteristic insight and charm Hood showcases the ways in which books gave her life and can transform even save our own lives Exploring Relationships and Connections to Others Mike P. Cook,Leilya A. Pitre,2021-10-13 Exploring Relationships

The Dark of Summer Eric Linklater, 2010-07-01 Introduced by Eric Linklater In the early years of the Second World War an army officer is sent to the Faroe Islands to investigate rumours of a collaboration with the Nazi regime in Norway What he finds changes lives not least his own No one who reads this book will forget the frozen corpse tied to a chair in an icehouse guarded by two drunken seamen or the raging storm which batters their ship as they carry the body to Shetland That's just the beginning As the tale takes hold the reader becomes haunted just as the characters are haunted by a sense of guilt and betrayal One of the finest of Linklater's later deeper darker novels The Dark of Summer combines national and family histories as it sets out to understand the past redeem the corrosion of memory and find meaning in a world of divided loyalties He writes not only of an angel but like one Observer One of the finest craftsmen of the century shamefully undervalued Anthony Burgess His masterpiece and one of the finest novels of the century in the same class as Waugh's Sword of Honour Allan Massie

Human Rights and Narrated Lives K. Schaffer, S. Smith, 2004-08-20 Personal narratives have become one of the most potent vehicles for advancing human rights claims across the world These two contemporary domains personal narrative and human rights literature and international politics are commonly understood to operate on separate planes This study however examines the ways these intersecting realms unfold and are enfolded in one another in ways both productive of and problematic for the achievement of social justice Human Rights and Narrated Lives explores what happens when autobiographical narratives are produced received and circulated in the field of human rights It asks how personal narratives emerge in local settings how international rights discourse enables and constrains individual and collective subjectivities in narration how personal narratives circulate and take on new meanings in new contexts and how and under what conditions they feed into affect and are affected by the reorganizations of politics in the post cold war postcolonial globalizing human rights contexts To explore these intersections the authors attend the production circulation reception and affective currents of stories in action across local national transnational and global arenas They do so by looking at five case studies in the context of the Truth and Reconciliation processes in South Africa the National Inquiry into the Forced Removal of Indigenous Children from their Families in Australia activism on behalf of former comfort women from South East Asia U S prison activism and democratic reforms in the aftermath of the Tiananmen Square Massacre in China
