Summer Visit Three Novellas

Rosi Braidotti, Patrick Hanafin, Bolette Blaagaard

Summer Visit Three Novellas:

A Summer's Tour in Europe, in 1851 Aaron Smith Willington, 1852 After Cosmopolitanism Rosi Braidotti, Patrick Hanafin, Bolette Blaagaard, 2013 At a time when social and political reality seems to move away from the practice of cosmopolitanism whilst being in serious need of a new international framework to regulate global interaction what are the new definitions and practices of cosmopolitanism Including contributions from leading figures across the humanities and social sciences After Cosmopolitanism takes up this question as its central challenge Its core argument is the idea that our globalised condition forms the heart of contemporary cosmopolitan claims which do not refer to a transcendental ideal but are rather immanent to the material conditions of global interdependence But to what extent do emerging definitions of cosmopolitanism contribute to new representative democratic models of governance The present volume argues that a radical transformation of cosmopolitanism is already ongoing and that more effort is needed to take stock of transformations which are both necessary and possible To this end After Cosmopolitanism calls for an understanding of cosmopolitanism that is more attentive to the material reality of our social and political situation and less focused on linguistic analyses of its metaphorical implications It is the call for a cosmopolitanism that is also a cosmopolitics Late Journals Antigone Kefala, 2022-04-01 The last work by Antigone Kefala renowned for both her poetry and her prose one of the first writers to open Australian literature to a diversity of voices and of the most distinctive and powerful of those voices Late Journals completes a trilogy of works in which Kefala develops and expands her range as a memoirist beginning with Summer Visit 2003 and followed by Sydney Journals 2008 both published by Giramondo Kefala is not alone in writing in the journal form Beverley Farmer and Helen Garner are notable contemporaries but she is remarkable for the poetic resonance and intellectual significance she imparts to her observations Feeling acutely her position as an outsider because of her migrant background she nevertheless expresses a strong sense of community with the writers artists and thinkers who share her situation or have influenced her work The journals abound in portraits and tributes reflections on art and life and wonderful descriptions of places and landscapes which give full reign to her imagination and her ability to express the vitality and strangeness of the life around her Poetry Antigone Kefala, 2025-04-01 Poetry brings together all the published poems of the late Antigone Kefala one of the most distinctive voices in contemporary Australian literature Her mixed background in Romania Greece New Zealand and Australia gave her lyric poetry a unique richness and grace Her writing was informed by literary traditions that allowed her to achieve powerful effects by apparently simple means Her poems are carefully worked minimal yet resonant evocative in their use of implication and understatement startling in their imagery They confront loss and grief and displacement particularly as the consequences of war and migration They excoriate pretension They also express delight in the present moment in newly discovered forms of experience and nature Poetry includes all the poems in Kefala's six previous poetry books published over fifty years from The Alien 1973 and Thirsty Weather 1978 to European

Notebook 1988 Absence New and Selected Poems 1992 1998 Fragments Giramondo 2016 and Journeys 2019 Fragments won the prestigious Judith Wright Calanthe Award and was shortlisted for the Prime Minister's Award for Poetry But most of her poetry has been out of print for many years

Australian Made Sonia Mycak, Amit Sarwal, 2018-08-30 Australian Made is a collection of essays about the writers the readers and the texts of multicultural Australia Presenting the work of critics and scholars from both Australia and abroad this collection creates a synergy between local and international perspectives as it explores what it means for a writer or a reader to be Australian and a text to be Australian made

Reading Greek

Australian Literature through the Paramythi Anna Dimitriou, 2024-06-04 This is a comparative textual analysis of a body of relatively neglected works by Greek Australian writers Dimitris Tsaloumas Antigone Kefala Stylianos Charkianakis Dean Kalimnios Christos Tsiolkas Fotini Epanomitis and Helen Koukoutsis The focus is on reading their texts as a bridge between multiculturalism and world literature given each writer identifies in various ways with peripheral cosmopolitanism as they merge high brow literary forms with the quotidian paramythi or the storytelling oral tradition The different ways they do this registers the writers ambivalent relationship with their origins through their transculturally mediated expression Discovering new possibilities in literary texts which have oral traces becomes a productive way to look at the question of translatability as posed by scholars of multiculturalism and world literature such as Sneja Gunew Emily Apter and Pheng Cheah

Patrimonies George Kouvaros, 2024-07-02 Is a patrimony something we inherit or something we create Does it mark the continuation of the past or its disappearance Combining elements of criticism cultural history and memoir Patrimonies addresses the questions How do we take from and give back to those who came before How have their actions and choices left their mark on us The instigation for these questions is an awareness of precariousness people places and histories on the brink This is what gives George Kouvaros's essays their sense of occasion and responsibility to those who came before and those still to come The outcome is a form of writing that is deeply moving and alert to the tension between survival and transformation preservation and appropriation that defines the engagements with our forebears

A Summer's Jaunt Across the Water; Including Visits to England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium, Etc John Jay Smith, 1846

The Amateur Abroad. The Record of a Summer Tour in Europe George Washington Tryon, 2025-07-11 Reprint of the original first published in 1875 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage

Fiction Antigone Kefala, 2025-04-01 The 2022 recipient of the Patrick White Literary Award the late Antigone Kefala was one of the first writers to open Australian fiction to a diversity of voices She is known for her nuanced and evocative prose style which portrays the full gamut of the immigrant experience the fleeing from war the resettlement in foreign countries the difficult negotiation of personal relationships the hauntings of memory and dream This collection brings together Kefala's three early novellas The First Journey The Boarding House and The Island which have long been out of print and her three later novellas published together as Summer Visit by Giramondo in 2022. It also includes her childhood fable Alexia, A Tale of Two Cultures, and ten short stories previously only published in literary magazines dating back to the beginnings of her career at the end of the 1950s.
