Summit of Treasures Angela Falco Howard, 2001 DEGREEST Summit of Treasures Buddhist Cave Art of Dazu China DEGREES
Aby Angela Falco Howard DEGREESD The monumental cave complexes of the Baodigshan site at Dazu in Sichuan province and their vast treasure trove of Buddhist sculpture and painting have been little studied relative to other Buddhist cave art in China This is the first English language publication to reveal and explain the incredible artworks hidden in this remote site dating from the Song dynasty and inspired by the profound tenets of Esoteric Buddhism Using brilliant color photographs and detailed line drawings Professor Angela Falco Howard presents the caves in the didactic order intended by their creators explaining their iconography symbolism and the hidden meanings in both the individual elements and overall design Finally the author places this magnificent construction within the context of an indigenous style of Buddhist sculpture that flourished in Sichuan province between the 11th and 13th cent Esoteric Buddhism and the Tantras in East Asia Charles Orzech, Henrik Sørensen, Richard Payne, 2011 This volume the result of an international collaboration of forty scholars provides a comprehensive resource on Esoteric Buddhism and the Tantras in their Chinese Korean and Japanese contexts from the first few centuries of the common era to the present The Zoomorphic Imagination in Chinese Art and Culture Jerome Silbergeld, Eugene Y. Wang, 2016-10-31 China has an age old zoomorphic tradition The First Emperor was famously said to have had the heart of a tiger and a wolf The names of foreign tribes were traditionally written with characters that included animal radicals In modern times the communist government frequently referred to Nationalists as running dogs and President Xi Jinping vowing to quell corruption at all levels pledged to capture both the tigers and the flies Splendidly illustrated with works ranging from Bronze Age vessels to twentieth century conceptual pieces this volume is a wide ranging look at zoomorphic and anthropomorphic imagery in Chinese art The contributors leading scholars in Chinese art history and related fields consider depictions of animals not as simple one for one symbolic equivalents they pursue in depth in complexity and in multiple dimensions the ways that Chinese have used animals from earliest times to the present day to represent and rhetorically stage complex ideas about the world around them examining what this means about China past and present In each chapter a specific example or theme based on real or mythic creatures is derived from religious political or other sources providing the detailed and learned examination needed to understand the means by which such imagery was embedded in Chinese cultural life Bronze Age taotie motifs calendrical animals zoomorphic modes in Tantric Buddhist art Song dragons and their painters animal rebuses Heaven sent auspicious horses and foreign sent tribute giraffes the fantastic specimens depicted in the Qing Manual of Sea Oddities the weirdly indeterminate creatures found in the contemporary art of Huang Yong Ping these and other notable examples reveal Chinese attitudes over time toward the animal realm explore Chinese psychology and patterns of imagination and explain some of the critical means and motives of Chinese visual culture The Zoomorphic Imagination in Chinese Art and Culture will find a ready audience among East Asian art and visual culture specialists and those with an interest in literary or visual rhetoric Contributors Sarah Allan Qianshen Bai Susan Bush Daniel Greenberg Carmelita Carma Hinton Judy Chungwa Ho Kristina Kleutghen Kathlyn Liscomb Jennifer Purtle Jerome Silbergeld Henrik S rensen and Eugene Y Wang

Ritual and Representation in Chinese Buddhism Karil J. Kucera, 2016-01-28 Includes 159 color images Baodingshan consists of a monastic complex and two rock carved areas Little Buddha Bend and Great Buddha Bend located in Dazu in western China and dates from the Southern Song period The complex is fundamentally different from earlier Buddhist rock carved sites in China in its construction and layout Foregoing traditional niche based iconography for large deeply cut reliefs reaching dimensions as great as eight meters high by twenty meters wide within Baodingshan s Great Buddha Bend the carved works flow from one tableau into another The site contains both texts and images related to the main schools of Buddhist thought This book presents an integrated analysis of all of the components of Great Buddha Bend within the greater Baodingshan site something that was lacking in earlier studies Written to provide guidance to the site for a wide spectrum of readers specialists and non specialists alike it provides a clear explanation of the major iconographic features of the imagery as well as translations of the numerous accompanying carved Buddhist texts It also presents the basic tenets of Pure Land Chan Zen Huayan and Esoteric Buddhism in order to explain the features of these sects as seen represented in visual as well as textual form at the site Lastly with its focus on ritual use and audience reception from the 12th to the 21st century this study provides a new model for the discussion and evaluation of other religious sites as entities that organically evolve over time This study also includes new translations of both the inscribed Buddhist texts and secular inscriptions carved at the site dating from the twelfth through the twenty first centuries inscriptions left by educated elite soldiers and government officials highlighting regional issues related to continuity and change made visible at Baodingshan

The Making of a Savior Bodhisattva Shi Zhiru, 2007-08-14 In modern Chinese Buddhism Dizang is especially popular as the sovereign of the underworld Often represented as a monk wearing a royal crown Dizang helps the deceased faithful navigate the complex underworld bureaucracy avert the punitive terrors of hell and arrive at the happy realm of rebirth The author is concerned with the formative period of this important Buddhist deity before his underworldly aspect eclipses his connections to other religious expressions and at a time when the art mythology practices and texts of his cult were still replete with possibilities She begins by problematizing the reigning model of Dizang one that proposes an evolution of gradual sinicization and increasing vulgarization of a relatively unknown Indian bodhisattva Ksitigarbha into a Chinese deity of the underworld Such a model the author argues obscures the many faceted personality and iconography of Dizang Rejecting it she deploys a broad array of materials art epigraphy ritual texts scripture and narrative literature to recomplexify Dizang and restore as much as possible from the fragmented historical sources what this figure meant to Chinese Buddhists from the sixth to tenth centuries Rather than privilege any one genre of evidence the author treats both material artifacts and literary works canonical and noncanonical sources Adopting an archaeological approach she excavates motifs from and finds resonances across disparate genres to paint a vibrant detailed picture of the medieval Dizang cult Through her analysis the cult far from being an isolated phenomenon is revealed as integrally woven into the entire fabric of Chinese Buddhism functioning as a kaleidoscopic lens encompassing a multivalent religio cultural assimilation that resists the usual bifurcation of doctrine and practice or elite and popular religion The Making of a Savior Bodhisattva presents a fascinating wealth of material on the personality iconography and lore associated with the medieval Dizang It elucidates the complex cultural religious and social forces shaping the florescence of this savior cult in Tang China while simultaneously addressing several broader theoretical issues that have preoccupied the field Zhiru not only questions the use of sinicization as a lens through which to view Chinese Buddhist history she also brings both canonical and noncanonical literature into dialogue with a body of archaeological remains that has been ignored in the study of East Asian Buddhism

1000 Buddhas of Genius T.W. Rhys Davids Ph.D. LLD., Victoria Charles, 2014-11-24 All living beings are Buddhas and have wisdom and virtue within them Buddha Buddha ranks among the most often depicted holy figures of the world perhaps appearing more than Christ a subject widely treated by Western artists Venerated in all the nations of Asia and even beyond his image took form along the Silk Road the birthplace of many schools of Buddhism Indeed the Buddhist religion recognises many Buddhas representing various traditions such as Buddhism of the Ancient Teaching Theravada of the Great Vehicle Mahayana and Tantric Buddhism Vajrayana A figure adored by all Buddha has been depicted in every art form sculpture often of monumental size like the now destroyed Buddhas of Bamyan painting and above all in countless cave murals such as those of Ajanta in India or Dunhuang in China Perfect for all those passionate about Asian art from neophytes to Buddhists this fascinating work invites the reader to discover or rediscover Buddha his history his codes but also his innumerable faces through one thousand representations selected from among the most beautiful works held in the world's greatest museums

The Great Wonders of China Jonathan Fenby, 2024-05-30 China is the oldest continuous civilization on earth and holds a unique global place in the 21st century this book's uniquely wide focus shows what makes it such a special country with topics stretching from the natural wonders including mountains and rivers to the Silk Road the technological innovations of printing and the compass and the modern vibrant cities of today as well as famous monuments such as the Forbidden City in Beijing and the Great Wall In this new and updated edition a team of leading scholars from Asia and the West provide an unmatched account of this vast country Beyond the quality of the individual entries The Great Wonders of China provides an unmatched account of Chinese history and culture as well as an essential contribution to understanding and appreciating this ancient land

Chinese Wood Sculptures of the 11th to 13th centuries Petra Rösch, 2007-11-16 Chinese Buddhist wooden sculptures of Water moon Guanyin a Bodhisattva sitting in a leisurely reclining pose on a rocky throne are housed in Western collections and are thus removed from their original contexts Not only are most of them of unknown origin but also lack a precise date Tracing their sources is difficult because of the scant information provided by art dealers in previous periods Thus only preliminary investigations into their stylistic development and technical features have been made so far Moreover until recently none of the Chinese temples that provided their original context i e their precise position within those temple compounds and their respective place in the Buddhist pantheon have been examined at all In her study Petra H R sch investigates these very aspects including questions about the religious position and function of the sculptures of this special Bodhisattva She also looks at the technical construction the collecting of Chinese Buddhist sculptures in general and those made of wood in particular She uses a combination of stylistic iconographical buddhological as well as technical methodologies in her investigation of the Water moon Guanyin images and sheds light on the Buddhist temples in Shanxi Province the works of art they once housed and the religious practices of the eleventh to thirteenth centuries connected with them

Buddhist Architecture Huu Phuoc Le,2010 The volume thoroughly examines the origins and principal types of Buddhist architecture in Asia primarily between the third century BCE twelfth century CE with an emphasis on India It aims to construct shared architectural traits and patterns alongwith the derivative relationships between Indian and Asian Buddhist monuments It also discusses the historical antecedents in the Indus Civilization and the religious and philosophical foundations of the three schools of Buddhism and its founder Buddha Previously obscure topics such as Aniconic and Vajrayana Tantric architecture and the four holiest sites of Buddhism will also be covered in this comprehensive volume The author further investigates the influences of Buddhist architecture upon Islamic Christian and Hindu architecture that have been overlooked by past scholars

The Journey of Maps and Images on the Silk Road Philippe Forêt,Andreas Kaplony,2008 This book covers new ground on the diffusion and transmission of geographical knowledge that occurred at critical junctures in the long history of the Silk Road Much of twentieth century scholarship on the Silk Road examined the ancient archaeological objects and medieval historical records found within each cultural area while the consequences of long distance interaction across Eurasia remained poorly studied Here ample attention is given to the journeys that notions and objects undertook to transmit spatial values to other civilizations In retracing the steps of four major circuits right across the many civilizations that shared the Silk Road The Journey of Maps and Images on the Silk Road traces the ways in which maps and images surmounted spatial historical and cultural divisions
