Arctic Diary Sam Branson, Sir Richard Branson, 2013-03-31

It's hardly a surprise to discover that Sam Branson has a love of adventure and a real concern about our future in a world where the climate is changing rapidly. Journeying into the heart of the Arctic wilderness with his father and a film crew, Sam explores the changing landscape and the lives of the native Inuit people who have survived in a relentlessly inhospitable environment for 5000 years. Sleeping on frozen seas and encountering majestic polar bears, Sam and his father embark together on a winter expedition which Sam must ultimately complete on his own, finding new depths of resilience and courage in a formidable and breathtaking landscape.

Dreams Diary Antonio Almas, 2020-02-11

Why? For what reason for the tree to grow, we need first to plant a seed. For what reason to have the fruit, it is necessary to flower. For what reason to bloom, we need to water first. For what reason to have leaves, it is necessary to be covered with light. It only makes sense that to dream and believing day after day, year after year, we are now sitting in the shade of this tree that we sowed so far behind that we cared for, we trimmed, and we made grow. Believing that we could be a tree, flower, and bear fruit, give shade and peace, it is like dreaming and making sure that one day we will be a forest.

To Gra, a with love

The Wanamaker Diary

Anonymous, 2008-05-01

The Wanamaker Diary was originally published for the John Wanamaker stores. It wasn't just a diary, but a miniature catalog and social guidebook complete with guides to local theatres, postal rates, holidays, and much more.

The Diaries of Nikolay Punin Nikolay Punin, 2010-07-05

Nikolay Punin (1888-1953) was the most articulate Russian Soviet art critic of the 1920s. He strongly advocated Constructivism, an avant-garde impulse that favored mechanomorphic abstraction and proclaimed a movement to bring art into the center of popular life. In the United States, he is perhaps best remembered for his love affair with Anna Akhmatova, one of the great poets of the twentieth century. This volume presents the first English translation of ten diary notebooks that Punin wrote between 1915 and 1936, as well as selections from his earlier (1904-1910) and later (1941-1946) diaries, and some thirty notes and letters relating to his affair with Anna Akhmatova. These materials offer a rare glimpse into the life of art and artists in Russia. They also present vivid scenes from the 1905 Revolution, World War I, the 1917 Revolutions, World War II, and Stalinist oppression through the reflections of a talented man who, unlike many of his generation, lived to tell the tale.
