

Sunday Celebrations in the Absence of a Priest

Part I: An Overview

The purpose of this four part series of bulletin inserts will address the many issues that are involved in Sunday Celebrations in the Absence of a Priest. The inserts will discuss the following topics:

- what Eucharist means and the various occasions that a parish may find it necessary to implement this rite,
- how these celebrations differ from Mass,
- who leads the gathered assembly when a priest is not available,
- the various forms the rite can take.

What is Sunday Celebrations in the Absence of a Priest?

Sunday Celebrations in the Absence of a Priest, is a rite provided by the Church as a response to the need of the faithful to gather for Sunday worship even in the absence of a priest. Assemblies of this kind should not diminish but rather increase the desire of the faithful to take part in the celebration of the Eucharist.

Why does the Church gather on Sunday?

The apostles counseled people to gather on Sunday as members of Christ's body. St. Ignatius of Antioch observed that in the early Church the faithful held the Lord's Day in such high regard that they never willingly omitted its observance even in times of persecution.

The Second Vatican Council reiterated this teaching that the faithful must come together in observance of the Lord's Day. By hearing the Word of God and taking part in the Eucharist, the Paschal mystery, i.e. the passion, resurrection, and glorification of the Lord Jesus is remembered and thanksgiving is offered to God for a living hope through the resurrection of the Lord.

The assembly of the faithful manifests the Church as called by God to celebrate oneness in Christ. Together the faithful receive spiritual formation and instruction in the Paschal Mystery through the scriptures and homily. The celebration of the eucharistic sacrifice expresses the one sacrifice by Jesus for the forgiveness of sins. Hence, the Lord's Day is the primary holy day and should be celebrated in as complete a way as possible. Other celebrations should not have precedence over the Sunday celebration of Mass.

When does a parish celebrate this rite?

The Diocese of Davenport recognizes that in the exceptional case when a parish priest is absent due to sickness or some other emergency, and when another priest cannot take his place, a complete celebration of the Eucharist on Lord's Day may not be possible. At this time no planned, or scheduled celebrations in the absence of a priest may be held.
