heinous and unbecoming degree of vanity perhaps and the money might possibly be applied to better uses it must not be forgotten however that it might very easily be devoted to worse and if two or three faces can be rendered happy and contented by a trifling improvement of outward appearance I cannot help thinking that the object is very cheaply purchased even at the expense of a smart gown or a gaudy riband There is a great deal of very unnecessary cant about the over dressing of the common people There is not a manufacturer or tradesman in existence who would not employ a man who takes a reasonable degree of pride in the appearance of himself and those about him in preference to a sullen slovenly fellow who works doggedly on regardless of his own clothing and that of his wife and children and seeming to take pleasure or pride in nothing
