Sunshine At The End Of Life:

Understanding End of Life Practices: Perspectives on Communication, Religion and Culture Chandana Banerjee, 2023-10-18 This book is an exploration of issues that are essential in end of life care Understanding end of life practices across cultures and religions is important in the delivery of patient centered end of life care This book helps clinicians and non clinicians understand the various end of life practices in their vast patient populations further contributing to providing empathetic and compassionate end of life care to patients With the advent of many new options at the end of life this book also explores the modern day approaches to end of life often sought by patients when faced with disease progression and adversity The Sun We Share Kristine Larsen, 2024-11-13 As the dominant star in our sky the Sun has been alternately worshipped as a god and viewed as a threat over the course of human history Despite significant advances in astronomy the Sun continues to surprise us most notably in its production of so called space weather that impacts technology here on Earth This unique mixture of familiarity and mystery has made the Sun a main character in popular media over the past three centuries This book examines how popular media have adapted to our ever changing understanding of the inner workings of the Sun It provides a valuable way to observe the inherent problems of communicating science to a non technical audience Chapters cut through the widespread hype found on the Internet and instead explore our ever improving scientific exploration of the Sun the persistent misconceptions surrounding it the fate of the Sun and its relation to the fate of the Earth and why despite comments to the contrary by Oscar Wilde the average person should care about sunspots Chasing the Sun Richard Cohen, 2011-08-04 The Sun is so powerful so much bigger than us that it is a terrifying subject Yet though we depend on it we take it for granted Amazingly the first book of its kind CHASING THE SUN is a cultural and scientific history of our relationship with the star that gives us life Richard Cohen applying the same mix of wide ranging reference and intimate detail that won outstanding reviews for By the Sword travels from the ancient Greek astronomers to modern day solar scientists from Stonehenge to Antarctica site of the solar eclipse of 2003 when penguins were said to sing Mexico's Aztecs to the Norwegian city of Tromsø where for two months of the year there is no Sun at all He introduces us to the crucial sunspot cycle in modern economics the religious dances of Indian tribesmen the histories of sundials and calendars the plight of migrating birds the latest theories of global warming and Galileo recording his discoveries in code for fear of persecution And throughout there is the rich Sun literature from the writings of Homer through Dante and Nietzsche to Keats Shelley and beyond Blindingly impressive and hugely readable this is a tour de force of narrative non fiction George D. Pozgar, 2009-11-04 Legal and Ethical Issues for Health Professionals is a concise and practical guide to legal and ethical dilemmas facing health care professionals today This book will help the reader to better understand the issues they will face on the job and its implications in the legal arena This text presents contemporary topics with a real world perspective and allows the student to develop critical thinking skills Littell's Living Age , 1855 The
