Super 8 Jonathan F. Gunter, Unesco, 1976 The Lost Cinema of Mexico Olivia Cosentino, Brian Price, 2022-02-08 This volume challenges the dismissal of Mexican filmmaking during the 1960s through 1980s an era long considered a low budget departure from the nation's earlier Golden Age examining the critical implications of discovering uncovering and recovering forgotten or ignored films Amateur Media and Participatory Cultures Annamaria Motrescu-Mayes, Susan Aasman, 2019-01-23 Amateur Media and Participatory Cultures aims to delineate the boundary line between today's amateur media practice and the canons of professional media and film practice Identifying various feasible interpretative frameworks from historical to anthropological perspectives the volume proposes a critical language able to cope with amateur and new media's rapid technological and interpretative developments Conscious of the fact that amateur media continue to be seen as the benchmark of visual records of authentic rather than mass media derived events Annamaria Motrescu Mayes and Susan Aasman pay particular attention to the ways in which diverse sets of concepts of amateur media have now merged across global visual narratives and everyday communication protocols Building on key research questions and content analysis in media and communication studies they have assessed differences between professional and amateur media productions based on the ways in which the originators of an image have been influenced by or have challenged their context of production This proposes that technical skills degrees of staging and or censoring visual information and patterns in media socialisation define central differences between professional and amateur media production distribution and consumption The book's methodical and interdisciplinary approach provides valuable insights into the ways in which visual priming cultural experiences and memory building are currently shaped stored and redistributed across new media technologies and visual channels Big as Life, 1998 Portable Moving Images Ricardo Cedeño Montaña, 2017-08-21 This media history explores a series of portable small cameras playback devices and storage units that have made the production of film and video available to everyone Covering several storage formats from 8mm films of the 1900s through the analogue videotapes of the 1970s to the compression algorithms of the 2000s this work examines the effects that the shrinkage of complex machines media formats and processing operations has had on the dissemination of moving images Using an archaeological approach to technical standards of media the author provides a genealogy of portable storage formats for film analog video and digitally encoded video This book is a step forward in decoding the storage media formats which up to now have been the domain of highly specialised technicians Movies on Home Ground Ian Craven, 2020-07-13 Movies on Home Ground Explorations in Amateur Cinema offers a critical response to the still under explored mode of amateur cinema as a particular sphere of British film practice Concentrating upon a roughly fifty year period 1930 1980 during which such filmmaking grew rapidly as a significant leisure activity in Britain the volume shows how popular cine assumed distinctive institutional and ideological forms and some remarkable aesthetic emphases grounded in consistent technical and critical apparatuses

Although an outline history of such filmmaking is certainly implicit the priority of Movies On Home Ground is to offer a series of overlapping perspectives on amateur movie making with a view to locating such filmmaking as a component of the broader shape of British film culture Emphasis is thus given to institutional contexts technical determinants and the social formations of practising filmmakers as well as to concerns with the construction of amateur outlooks understandings of amateur aesthetics and the remarkable diversity of amateur genericity The anthology thus supplies a text offering support to study courses dealing with the many varieties of non professional participation best understood as truly amateur rather than as independent or alternative filmmaking By granting the amateur a place within the acknowledged range of significant interventions the recognised canon of British filmmaking is widened in fascinating new directions

Resources in Education, 1977 Film Study Frank Manchel, 1990-10 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities

Filmmakers Newsletter, 1977 Identity and Myth in Sports Documentaries Zachary Ingle, David M. Sutera, 2012-12-27 Nonfiction films about sports have been around for decades yet few scholarly articles have been published on these works In Identity and Myth in Sports Documentaries editors Zachary Ingle and David M Sutera have assembled a collection of essays that show how myth and identity national religious ethnic and racial are constructed perpetuated or questioned in documentaries produced in the United States France Australia Germany and Japan This collection is divided into three sections American Identity and Myth contains essays on consumerism religion in sports and post 9 11 America Race and Ethnicity examines the ways in which African American Mexican American and Jewish identity are portrayed in the documentaries under discussion Global Perspectives features films and TV series produced outside of the United States or those that provide perspectives on the international sport scene Spanning several decades the landmark documentaries discussed in this volume include Hoop Dreams The Endless Summer The Life and Times of Hank Greenberg Olympia and Tokyo Olympiad and address such subjects as baseball football basketball boxing soccer surfing and the Olympics The essays pose such questions as How are notions of the American dream involved in athletes aspirations How do media texts from Australia or France construct Australian and French identity respectively and How did filmmakers such as Leni Riefenstahl Kon Ichikawa and Bud Greenspan infuse their Olympic documentaries with national ideology despite being intended for an international audience By tackling these subjects Identity and Myth in Sports Documentaries is an intriguing read for scholars students and the general public alike
