The Hamba:

The Proletarian Gamble Ken C. Kawashima, 2009-04-17 A Marxist interpretation of Korean migrant workers struggles in Japan during the 1920s and 1930s The Sociology of Malayan Peoples George Alexander Wilken, 1921 A Tract for the Buryats Charles R. Bawden, Isaak Jakob Schmidt, 2009 F Babinger biographer of Isaak Jakob Schmidt 1779 1847 the founder of Mongolian Studies lists Two Little Christian Tracts among his early publications in Mongolian no later Mongolist apparently ever saw or described this booklet published in 1818 A probably unique copy came to light in the Library of the German Oriental Society and was transcribed and translated by Charles Bawden who is known for his careful studies of Christian missions among the Mongols The printed text is given in facsimile A detailed commentary analyzes the text and traces the inconsistent Christian terminology which was apparently still in an experimental stage Schmidt's Mongolian assistants Badma and Nomtu were probably mainly responsible for the translation A preface informs about the versatile printer N Grec while an appendix gives mission reports and a related Mongolian correspondence in contemporary German paraphrase Unknown Treasures of the Altaic World in Libraries, Archives and Museums Tatiana A. Pang, Gerd Winkelhane, Simone-Christiane Raschmann, 2020-08-10 No detailed description available for Unknown Treasures of the Altaic World in Libraries Archives and Museums Tragic Spirits Manduhai Buyandelger, 2022-12-22 A highly readable ethnographic study of the resurgence of shamanism among nomadic Mongolians in a time of radical political and economic change The Journal of Asian Studies Winner Francis Hsu Book Prize from the Society for East Asian Anthropology Shortlisted ICAS International Convention of Asia Scholars Book Prize The collapse of socialism at the end of the twentieth century brought devastating changes to Mongolia Economic shock therapy an immediate liberalization of trade and privatization of publicly owned assets quickly led to impoverishment especially in rural parts of the country where Tragic Spirits takes place Following the travels of the nomadic Buryats Manduhai Buyandelger tells a story not only of economic devastation but also a remarkable Buryat response to it the revival of shamanic practices after decades of socialist suppression Attributing their current misfortunes to returning ancestral spirits who are vengeful over being abandoned under socialism the Buryats are now at once trying to appease their ancestors and recover the history of their people through shamanic practice Thoroughly documenting this process Buyandelger situates it as part of a global phenomenon comparing the rise of shamanism in liberalized Mongolia to its similar rise in Africa and Indonesia In doing so she offers a sophisticated analysis of the way economics politics gender and other factors influence the spirit world and the crucial workings of cultural memory An excellent addition to studies in the area emotive accessible and well researched London School of Economics Review of Books Sacrifice in Africa Luc de Heusch, 1985 Journal of the Straits Branch of the Royal Asiatic Society, 1879 Journal of the Straits Branch of the Royal Asiatic Society Malayan Branch of the Royal Asiatic Society, 1880 A Gazetteer of the Central Province of Ceylon (excluding Walapane) Archibald Campbell Lawrie, 1898 Zulu Grammar

Robert Charles Azariah Samuelson,1925 Malay Ideas on Development: From Feudal Lord to Capitalist Shaharuddin Maaruf,2022-12-06 Formally speaking the New Economy Policy had been replaced by the New Economic Order which had been promulgated in the name of liberalism Thus it may seem that the issues and concerns addressed by the book had been rendered irrelevant by the shift in policy Against such proposition I must say that my book addresses itself to the question of ideas principles and weltanschauung beyond mere policies and formality It is therefore too early in the day to conclude that the new liberalism has definitively replaced the New Economic Policy NEP as an era and ethos throwing into question the relevance of this book It may well turn out to be that the issues and concerns of the book transcend superficial policy changes in a more fundamental way Shaharuddin Maaruf University of Malaya 15 April 2014 The sweep through the history of Malay political ideas which is to be encountered in Malay Ideas on Development from Feudal Lord to Capitalist a sweep achieved with analytic skill and clarity will stimulate new readers to seek more detailed examination of one targeted writer or another Creating such desire is an indication of the book s effectiveness Juxtaposing one thinker with another setting modern debate in the context of traditional political thought proposing categories or streams of political thinking capitalistic nationalism traditionalistic nationalism and so forth is the best possible way of promoting a greater interest in the history of Malay political thinking and not just as an academic enterprise Shaharuddin Maaruf is one of a small handful of scholarly pioneers whose work has the capacity to enrich the quality of political debate in Malaysia Anthony Milner Basham Professor for Asian History Australian National University Egypt in 1855 and 1856; Tunis in 1857 and 1858 W.H. Dido for the Suppression of Piracy* Sir Henry Keppel,1846 The Expedition to Borneo of H. M. S. Dido Henry Keppel,2009 The visit of her majesty s ship Dido to Borneo and her services against the pirates occupy comparatively so small a portion of this volume that some excuse may be necessary for its leading title It was only by undertaking to make the account of them part of the narrative that I could prevail upon my friend Mr Brooke to intrust me with his Journal for any public object and when I looked at his novel and important position as a ruler in Borneo and was aware how much of European curiosity was attached to it I felt it impossible not to consent to an arrangement which should enable me to trace the remarkable career through which he had reached that elevation I hope therefore to be considered as having conquered my own disinclination to be the relater of events in which I was concerned in order to overcome the scruples which he entertained against being the author of the autobiographical sketch embracing so singular a portion of his life which I have extracted from the rough notes confided to me That his diffidence in this respect was groundless will I trust be apparent from these pages however indifferently I may have executed

my unusual task during a long homeward sea voyage and from the growing interest which has arisen throughout the country for intelligence on the subject of Borneo and the adjacent archipelago I venture also to indulge the belief that the general information will be deemed no unfit adjunct to the story of personal adventure
