William Cullen Bryant William Cullen Bryant,Thomas G. Voss,2019-11-05 On April 26 1865 as Abraham Lincoln s funeral cortege paused in Union Square New York before being taken by rail to Springfield Illinois William Cullen Bryant listened as his own verse elegy for the slain president was read to a great concourse of mourners by the Reverend Samuel Osgood Only five years earlier and a few blocks downtown at Cooper Union Bryant had introduced the prairie candidate to his first eastern audience There his masterful appeal to the conscience of the nation prepared the way for his election to the presidency on the verge of the Civil War Now Bryant stood below Henry Kirke Brown s equestrian statue of George Washington impressing

Osgood as if he were the 19th Century itself thinking over the nation and the age in that presence Bryant's staunch support of the Union cause throughout the war and of Lincoln's war efforts no less than his known influence with the president led several prominent public figures to urge that he write Lincoln's biography Oliver Wendell Holmes wrote him No man combines the qualities for his biographer so completely as yourself and the finished task would be a noble crown to a noble literary life But Bryant declined declaring his inability to record impartially critical events in which he had taken so central a part Furthermore while preoccupied with the editorial direction of the New York Evening Post he was just then repossessing and enlarging his family's homestead at Cumington Massachusetts where he hoped his ailing wife might during long summers in mountain air regain her health But in July 1866 Frances died of recurrent rheumatic fever and Bryant confessed to Richard Dana he felt as one cast out of Paradise After Frances death Bryant traveled with his daughter Julia for nearly a year through Great Britain and the Continent where he met British statesman and novelist Edward Bulwer Lytton and French literary critic Hyppolyte Taine renewed his friendship with Spanish poet Carolina Coronado Italian liberator Giuseppe Garibaldi and British and American artists and visited the family of the young French journalist Georges Clemenceau as well as the graves of earlier acquaintances Francis Lord Jeffrey and Elizabeth Barrett Browning In his spare moments Bryant sought solace by beginning the translation of Homer and Longfellow had found relief after his wife's tragic death by rendering into English Dante's Divine Comedy Home again in New York Bryant bought and settled in a house at 24 West 16th Street which would be his city home for the rest of his life Here he completed major publications including the Iliad and Odyssey of Homer and an exhaustive Library of Poetry and Song and added to published tributes to earlier friends such as Thomas Cole Fenimore Cooper and Washington Irving memorial discourses on Fitz Greene Halleck and Gulian Verplanck In addition to his continued direction of the New York Homeopathic Medical college and the American Free Trade League he was elected to the presidency of the Williams College Alumni Association the International Copyright Association and the Century Association the club of artists and writers of which twenty years earlier he had been a principal founder and which he would direct for the last decade of his life

William Golding: The Faber Letters William Golding, 2025-11-04 The remarkable literary collaboration between a Nobel Prizewinning novelist and his editor of more than forty years Three people have been of major importance and influence in my life and you are one of them There is a way in which I am as a writer at least partly your creation William Golding to Charles Monteith In 1953 William Golding's novel Lord of the Flies was rescued from a slush pile of unsolicited manuscripts by Charles Monteith a new young editor at the publishing house Faber Faber It went on to sell over 25 million copies Over the next forty years Monteith worked closely with Golding on every one of his novels These letters tell the story of their remarkable collaboration They chart Golding's transformation from unknown middle aged schoolmaster to knighted Nobel Prizewinner and they tell the story of a deep and mutually rewarding friendship as Dear Monteith and Dear Golding become Dear Charles and Dear Bill In this beautifully produced stitch bound volume Tim

Kendall draws on both public and private archives to reveal the relationship between one of the greatest novelists of the twentieth century and his publisher both men who considered themselves for different reasons to be outsiders Their correspondence sheds fascinating light on both the mysteries of the writing process and the vagaries of the literary world Generous amusing acerbic intimate and often irreverent these letters encompass gossip reading recommendations and stories of Greek island adventures as well as detailed discussion of titles characters and Golding s dreadful spelling
