The Hermitage Within ,2023-10-15 Not everyone can or should live as a hermit Yet all Christians need an inner hermitage a place apart where we come face to face with our true selves and listen to the still small voice of God It is a place of silence of fear and fascination of anguish and grace The writer of this profound yet simple volume encourages us to find our own inner hermitage a place of calm and contemplation apart from the demands of the modern world a place so silent that we can hear God The desert the mountain and the temple provide the focus of the anonymous author s reflections He meditates on the wilderness experiences of such biblical persons as Jesus John the Baptist and Mary Magdalen He considers the place held in the Christian story by Mount Sinai the Mount of Olives and Calvary He ponders the idea of temples using such images as our inner temple and Christ the temple the foundation of the Church The Hermitage Within

Education Richard Noble,2023-11-25 When we ask the question what is the purpose of education we are asking what is the purpose of educating human beings and any sincere answer to this question can only be advanced following our reflections upon the interrelated question what do we mean by being human This Who are We question is embedded though usually not explicitly in school inspection regimes in day to day teaching practice and in all educational dialogue and policy It affects the wellbeing of those on the frontline of education But it is possible for staff policy makers and academics to uncover these hidden assumptions explore counter narratives and transform school curricula in the light of these reformed narratives The author approaches these questions from a Christian Contemplative standpoint via Radical Orthodoxy RO an academic persuasive and polemical sensibility and through the prayerful and relational aspiration of the contemplative tradition It takes as a central case study the inspection of a school by the UK Government inspection body Ofsted the Office for Standards in Education

The Desert John Moses, 1998-01-15 The desert with its great emptiness and silence has long been a symbol of solitude In our spiritual lives we sometimes seek such isolation as a means of abandoning ourselves completely to God At other times solitude comes upon us uninvited and unwelcome as we find ourselves totally alone and desolate In facing the silence and the vast expanses of loneliness we test our courage deepen our faith and hear the voice of God anew This book explores the tradition and relevance of desert spirituality in the life and worship of the church today and offers a collection of pertinent writings by these and many other ancient and contemporary authors Thomas Kempis Mother Mark Clare Henri Nouwen Ren Voillaume Charles de Foucauld Thomas Merton R S Thomas The readings are ideal Lenten devotionals but wonderful any other time of year as well as you answer your own call of the desert

A Course in Desert Spirituality Thomas Merton, 2019-04-25 2020 Association of Catholic Publishers first place award in spirituality Thomas Merton's sessions with the young monks at the Abbey of Gethsemani showcase Merton's brilliant ability to survey the key figures and synthesize their writings inspiring his listeners and readers with what it means for the spiritual life Like its companion volume A Course in Christian Mysticism this book is a collection of fifteen lectures that get to the heart of Merton's belief that monastic wisdom and spirituality are applicable for everyone This compact volume allows anyone to learn from one of the twentieth century's greatest Catholic spiritual teachers The study materials at the back of the book including additional primary source readings and thoughtful questions for reflection and discussion make this an essential text for any student of Christian desert spirituality
