The Alexandrian Riots of 38 C.E. and the Persecution of the Jews Sandra Gambetti, 2009 Scholars have read the Alexandrian riots of 38 CE according to intertwined dichotomies. The Alexandrian Jews fought to keep their citizenship or to acquire it; they evaded the payment of the poll tax or prevented any attempts to impose it on them; they safeguarded their identity against the Greeks or against the Egyptians. Avoiding that pattern and building on the historical reconstruction of the experience of the Alexandrian Jewish community under the Ptolemies, this work submits that the riots were the legal and political consequence of an imperial adjudication against the Jews. Most of the Jews lost their residence, never to recover it again. The Roman emperor, the Roman prefect of Egypt and the Alexandrian citizenry all shared responsibilities according to their respective and expected roles.
