The New Writers of the South Charles East, 1987 Stories and selections from novels by twenty writers depict the complexities of life in the modern South

The Companion to Southern Literature Joseph M. Flora, Lucinda Hardwick MacKethan, 2001-11-01 Selected as an Outstanding Academic Title by Choice Selected as an Outstanding Reference Source by the Reference and User Services Association of the American Library Association There are many anthologies of southern literature but this is the first companion Neither a survey of masterpieces nor a biographical sourcebook The Companion to Southern Literature treats every conceivable topic found in southern writing from the pre Columbian era to the present referencing specific works of all periods and genres Top scholars in their fields offer original definitions and examples of the concepts they know best identifying the themes burning issues historical personalities beloved icons and common or uncommon stereotypes that have shaped the most significant regional literature in memory Read the copious offerings straight through in alphabetical order Ancestor Worship Blue Collar Literature Caves or skip randomly at whim Guilt The Grotesque William Jefferson Clinton Whatever approach you take The Companion's authority scope and variety in tone and interpretation will prove a boon and a delight Explored here are literary embodiments of the Old South New South Solid South Savage South Lazy South and Sahara of the Bozart As up to date as grit lit K Mart fiction and postmodernism and as old fashioned as Puritanism mules and the tall tale these five hundred entries span a reach from Lady to Lesbian Literature The volume includes an overview of every southern state's belletristic heritage while making it clear that the southern mind extends beyond geographical boundaries to form an essential component of the American psyche The South's lavishly rich literature provides the best means of understanding the region's deepest nature and The Companion to Southern Literature will be an invaluable tool for those who take on that exciting challenge Description of Contents 500 lively succinct articles on topics ranging from Abolition to Yoknapatawpha 250 contributors including scholars writers and poets 2 tables of contents alphabetical and subject and a complete index A separate bibliography for most entries

New Stories from the South Allan Gurganus, Kathy Pories, 2006-01-01 A collection of outstanding short stories by masterful voices in Southern literature features a broad spectrum of twenty works by both established authors and new writers including Wendell Berry George Singleton Tony Earley Erin Brooks Worley and J D Chapman among others all selected and introduced by guest editor Allan Gurganus Original

Contemporary Fiction Writers of the South Joseph M. Flora, Robert Bain, 1993-08-23 The extraordinary flowering of Southern literary talent in the early twentieth century the Southern Literary Renaissance has continued virtually unabated showing increasing vitality in recent decades These newer fiction writers poets dramatists and journalists reflect in their work the changing social conditions of the South while also presenting traditional Southern values and qualities Their astonishing output constitutes a phenomenon worthy of being called a Second Southern Literary Renaissance Joseph M Flora and Robert Bain editors of the acclaimed Fifty Southern Writers before 1900 and Fifty Southern

Writers after 1900 found that they could only begin to suggest the continuing abundance and significance of Southern writing in the latter volume Retaining the same format they have developed two new volumes for the contemporary period The first focusing on fiction comprises forty nine talented novelists including such popular figures as Pat Conroy Gail Godwin T R Pearson Anne Tyler and Alice Walker The companion volume Contemporary Poets Dramatists Essayists and Novelists A Bio Bibliographical Sourcebook forthcoming from Greenwood Press will cover primarily poets playwrights and essayists as well as fiction writers who have made major contributions to these other genres The essays written by scholars and critics present in each case a biographical sketch an analysis of the writer s style and major themes an assessment of reviews and scholarship a chronological list of works and a bibliography of selected criticism Considered individually and comparatively and with attention to the editors introductory essay these bio bibliographical studies clearly demonstrate the state and strength of Southern letters

New Stories from the South Z. Z. Packer, Kathy Pories, 2008-01-01 A collection of outstanding short stories by masterful voices in Southern literature features a broad spectrum of twenty works by both established and new writers including Pinckney Benedict Ron Rash Clyde Edgerton and Holly Goddard Jones among others all selected and introduced by guest editor ZZ Packer Original

The Short Story Anthology and Women's Writing Aleix Tura Vecino, 2025-08-14 Hundreds of anthologies of women s short stories have appeared in the literary market between the 1970s and now This publishing and cultural phenomenon is considered for the first time in this book which argues that during this period anthologies have become a literary technology used not only to make visible female short story writers but also to think about and mould ideas of womanhood Through creative and contextualised readings of the most important anthologies produced in this period this study shows that this literary form has contributed to and in some cases pioneered key developments in gender theory and feminist thought including questions of political combination among women which underlie contemporary global movements such as MeToo In doing so the book also develops the first book length conceptualisation of the features and meaning making mechanisms of the short story anthology as a literary form This book will benefit academics and students working in the fields of short fiction publishing and women s studies as well as feminist scholars and a growing number of specialists interested in the anthology as a literary form worldwide
