Onoto Watanna Diana Birchall, 2001 In 1901 Winnifred Eaton arrived in New York City with literary ambitions journalism experience and the manuscript for A Japanese Nightingale the novel that would make her famous Her writing and gift for reinvention would set her apart from other women authors of her time and make her a fascinating early figure in Asian American literature Diana Birchall Eaton s granddaughter tells the Horatio Alger story of the woman who became Onoto Watanna Born to a British father and a Chinese mother Winnifred capitalized on her exotic appearance and protected herself from Americans scorn of the Chinese by becoming Japanese Her popular Japanese themed romance novels thrust her into the glittering world of New York s literati From there she leapt to Hollywood to become a scriptwriting protégé of Carl Laemmle at Universal Studios Yet her boldness and talent masked a sometimes desperate personal life that included a troubled first marriage and the sudden end of her Hollywood career A compelling saga of the shifting boundary between life and art Onoto Watanna reveals the conflicting stories personal tempests and remarkable accomplishments of a woman whose career was sensational in every sense Blockbusters of Victorian Theater, 1850-1910

Paul Fryer, 2023-11-23 This edited collection of essays details a wide ranging selection of some of the most sensationally successful theatre productions of the long Victorian era the real blockbusters of the age Ranging from the world of operetta and music hall to spectacular drama and sensational melodrama the productions included provide the reader with definitive proof that the phenomenon of the smash hit show is not restricted to modern Broadway This is a world that encompassed the ground breaking stage technology of Ben Hur the wide political impact of Uncle Tom s Cabin and the sheer creative originality of L'Enfant Prodiges Supporting the star system productions featured some of the greatest names of the period Sir Henry Irving Sir Johnston Forbes Robertson James O'Neill and Dion Boucicault This was the very dawning of a new media age which saw many of the productions transfer to the new world of silent cinema for the very first time The Irish Play on the New York Stage, 1874-1966 John P. Harrington, 2021-11-21 Over the years American especially New York audiences have evolved a consistent set of expectations for the Irish play Traditionally the term implied a specific subject matter invariably rural and Catholic and embodied a reductive notion of Irish drama and society This view continues to influence the types of Irish drama produced in the United States today By examining seven different opening nights in New York theaters over the course of the last century John Harrington considers the reception of Irish drama on the American stage and explores the complex interplay between drama and audience expectations All of these productions provoked some form of public disagreement when they were first staged in New York ranging from the confrontation between Shaw and the Society for the Suppression of Vice to the intellectual outcry provoked by billing Waiting for Godot as the laugh sensation of two continents The inaugural volume in the series Irish Literature History and Culture The Irish Play on the New York Stage explores the New York premieres of The Shaughraun 1874 Mrs Warren's Profession 1905 The Playboy of the Western World 1911 Exiles 1925 Within the Gates 1934 Waiting for Godot 1956 and Philadelphia Here I Come 1966
