Johnson, 1997-01-01 Describes the lives and varied experiences of some of the many women who traveled across the American West including Cynthia Ann Parker Mary Richardson Walker Harriet Sanders Maria Virginia Slade and Elizabeth Custer Growing up in the West End of New Rochelle, New York in the 50'S-60'S Dennis M. Nardone, 2015-05-20 The book will explain in my terms The West when I was growing up all the people friends and families that made it such a memorable and lasting creation and foundation of childhood youth as an adolescent right up to my high school years The book will explain the neighborhood where we all played shopped bought our baseballs lemon ice candy newspapers bologna sandwiches pizza or just hung out our neighborhood schools church restaurants grocery stores etc Hopefully my memories reflections and experiences of The West will bring you joy and many great memories like I have endured Good reading to you as I return you to Growing Up in the West End of New Rochelle in the 50s 60s the way I remember it my memoirs Lawless Love Rosanne Bittner, 2016-03-29 A man ruled by his gun meets a woman led by her heart in a dazzling western historical romance from the bestselling author of Shameless When Moss Tucker smells danger he shoots it When he needs shelter he grabs it And when he wants a woman's touch he buys it But then he sees Amanda Boone's sparkling azure eyes an innocent beauty like her would never get involved with a law breaking man like him Chestnut haired Amanda tries to keep her gaze on the vast frontier that flashes past her train window but it keeps straying to the buckskin clad stranger Every inch of him is virile and strong She knows it's wrong to even think of his muscular arms crushing her soft curves in a fierce embrace Yet she vows that before the trip is over he will be the one to tame her savage desire with his wild and lawless love Bittner's characters spring to life Extraordinary for the depth of emotion with which they are portrayed Publishers Weekly The Converted Catholic ,1908 Women and Monastic Reform in the Medieval West, C. 1000-1500 Julie Hotchin,Jirki Thibaut,2023 New approaches to understanding religious women s involvement in monastic reform demonstrating how women s experiences were more ambiguous and multi layered than previously assumed Over the last two decades scholarship has presented a more nuanced view of women s attitude to and agency in medieval monastic reform challenging the idea that they were by and large unwilling to accept or were necessarily hostile towards reform initiatives Rather it has shown that they actively participated in debates about the ideas and structures that shaped their religious lives whether rejecting embracing or adapting to calls for reform contingent on their circumstances Nevertheless fundamental questions regarding the gendered nature of religious reform are ripe for further examination This book brings together innovative research from a range of disciplines to re evaluate and enlarge our knowledge of women s involvement in spiritual and institutional change in female monastic communities over the period c 1000 c 1500 Contributors revise conventional narratives about women and monastic reform and earlier assumptions of reform as negative or irrelevant for women Drawing on a diverse array of visual material and textual sources it presents snapshots of reform from western Europe stretching from Ireland to Iberia Case studies focussing on a number of different topics from tenth century female saints lives to fifteenth century liturgical books from the tenth century Leominster prayerbook to archaeological remains in Ireland from embroideries and tapestries to the rebellious nuns of Sainte Croix in Poitiers offer a critical reappraisal of how monastic women and their male associates reflected individually and collectively on their spiritual ideals and institutional forms
