The Obligation Toward The Difficult Whole Postmodernist Long Poems Modern Contemporary Poetics:

The Obligation Toward the Difficult Whole Brian McHale, 2004 A smart eclectic analysis of nine long poems written by postmodernist poets Addressing subjects as wide ranging as angelology the court masque pop art caricature the cult of the ruin hip hop Spenser's Irish policy and the aesthetics of silence Brian McHale pulls varied threads together to identify a repertoire of postmodernist elements characteristic of the long poems he examines As critic Jed Rasula explains McHale is wonderfully resourceful in changing the subject from chapter to chapter to fit the poems discussed and while his approach adheres to the conventions of textual exegesis the chapters really shine as orchestrations of issues For instance James Merrill's The Changing Light at Sandover works unexpectedly well in raising the subject of found poetry and procedural composition Melvin Tolson's Harlem Gallery and Edward Dorn's Gunslinger are effectively paired to demonstrate the period flavor of pastiche Geoffrey Hill's Mercian Hymns and Armand Schwerner's The Tablets explode the modernist fixation with depth John Ashbery's work is given a nuanced reading as proto theory Letter to an Imaginary Friend by Thomas McGrath provides a lucid backdrop to raise the question of political efficacy in approaching language poet Bruce Andrews and Susan Howe's The Europe of Trusts is explored for its intertextual tapestry McHale shows how elements from these long poems overlap interfere pull in different directions jar against and even contradict each other and he demonstrates how they also echo amplify and reinforce each other They do not slot smoothly together like pieces in a jigsaw puzzle but they do form what else a difficult whole

A Long Essay on the Long Poem Rachel Blau DuPlessis, 2023-03-21 For decades Rachel Blau DuPlessis has shown readers how genres forms and the literal acts of writing and reception can be understood as sites of struggle In her own words writing is a praxis in which the author disappears into a process into a community into discontinuities and into a desire for discovery It is cause for celebration then that we have another work of warm incisive expository writing from DuPlessis in A Long Essay on the Long Poem

Contemporary Poetry Nerys Williams, 2011-04-06 Discussing the work of more than 60 poets from the US UK Ireland Australia New Zealand and the Caribbean Nerys Williams guides students through the key ideas and movements in the study of poetry today

Phenomenology and the Late Twentieth-Century American Long

Poem Matthew Carbery, 2019-01-04 Phenomenology and the Late Twentieth Century American Long Poem reads major figures including Charles Olson Lyn Hejinian Nathaniel Mackey Susan Howe and Rachel Blau DuPlessis within a new approach to the long poem tradition Through a series of contextualised close readings it explores the ways in which American poets developed their poetic forms by engaging with a variety of European phenomenologists including Hannah Arendt Maurice Merleau Ponty Martin Heidegger Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida Consolidating recent materials on the role of Continental Philosophy in American poetics this book explores the theoretical and historical contexts in which avant garde poets have developed radically new methods of making poems long Matthew Carbery offers a timely commentary on a number of major works of American poetry whilst providing ground breaking research into the wider philosophical context of late twentieth century poetic experimentation Notational Experiments in North American Long Poems, 1961-2011 A. J. Carruthers, 2017-01-28 This book is a critical experiment that tracks the literary and poetic uses of musical notation and notational methods in North American long poems from the middle of last century to the contemporary moment Poets have readily referred to their poems as scores Yet in this study Carruthers argues that the integration of musical scores in expansive works of this period does more work than previously thought offering both resolution and escape from the demands placed on long poem form The five case studies on Langston Hughes Armand Schwerner BpNichol Joan Retallack and Anne Waldman offer approaches to reading literary scores in what might be described as a critical stave or a critical fugue of instances In differing ways musical notation and notational methods impact the form time and sometimes the ethical and political stances of these respective long poems Edinburgh Companion to Twentieth-Century Literatures in English Brian McHale, 2006-06-28 An imaginatively constructed new literary history of the twentieth century This companion with a difference sets a controversial new agenda for literary historical analysis Far from the usual forced march through the decades genres and national literatures this reference work for the new century cuts across familiar categories focusing instead on literary hot spots Freud's Vienna and Conrad's Congo in 1899 Chicago and London in 1912 the Somme in July 1916 Dublin London and Harlem in 1922 and so on down to Bradford and Berlin in 1989 the fatwa against Salman Rushdie the new digital media Stockholm in 1993 Toni Morrison's Nobel Prize and September 11 2001 The Cambridge Companion to Modern American Poetry Walter Kalaidjian, 2015-01-19 The Cambridge Companion to Modern American Poetry offers a critical overview of major and emerging American poets of the twentieth century The to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2009-07-23 The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater examines the different areas of postmodernist literature and theater and the variety of forms that have been produced It contains a list of acronyms a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on individual writers important aesthetic practices significant texts and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form By placing these concerns within the historical philosophical and cultural contexts of postmodernism this reference explores the frameworks within which postmodernist literature of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries operates Book Jacket The New American Poetry John R. Woznicki, 2013-12-24 The New American Poetry Fifty Years Later is a collection of critical essays on Donald Allen's 1960 seminal anthology The New American Poetry an anthology that Marjorie Perloff once called the fountainhead of radical American poetics The New American Poetry is referred to in every literary history of post World War II American poetry Allen's anthology has reached its fiftieth anniversary providing a unique time for reflection and reevaluation of this preeminent collection As we know Allen's anthology was groundbreaking it was the first to distribute widely the poetry and theoretical positions of poets such as Charles Olson Allen Ginsberg and the Beats and it was the first to categorize these poets by the schools Black Mountain New York School San Francisco Renaissance and the Beats by which they are known today Over the course of fifty years this categorization of poets into schools has become one of the major if not only way that The New American Poetry is remembered or valued one certain goal of this volume as one reviewer invites is to pry The New American Poetry out from the hoary platitudes that have encrusted it To this point critics mostly have examined The New American Poetry as an anthology former treatments of The New American Poetry look at it intently as a whole Though the almost singularly focused study of its construction and less often reception has lent a great deal of documented highly visible and debated material in which to consider we have been left with certain notions about its relevance that have become imbued ultimately in the collective critical consciousness of postmodernity This volume however goes beyond the analysis of construction and reception and achieves something distinctive extending those former treatments by treading on the paths they create This volume aims to discover another sense of radical that Perloff articulated rather than a radical that departs markedly from the usual we invite consideration of The New American Poetry that is radical in the sense of root of harboring something fundamental something inherent as we uncover and trace further elements correlated with its widespread influence over the last fifty years
