The Of Fortune Telling 2 How To Read Signs And Portents:

The Complete Book of Everyday Christianity R. Paul Stevens, Robert Banks, 2018-12-01 I am thrilled to know that The Complete Book of Everyday Christianity is being relaunched A well worn first edition of this book sits next to my office desk and I consult it often There is no better collection of everyday issues examined from a Christian perspective A wide variety of topics are addressed with a cleverly balanced combination of academic and practical perspectives informed by thoughtful biblical and theological reflection This is a wonderfully useful tool I am pleased that it will be available to resource a new generation of Christians who are eager to understand more about what it means to follow Christ in every aspect of life Alistair Mackenzie Senior Lecturer School of Theology Mission and Ministry Laidlaw College Christchurch New Zealand Also Director of Faith at Work NZ

Divination Dr Patrick Curry, 2013-06-28 Divination is any ritual and its associated tradition performed in order to ask a more than human intelligence for guidance A universal human practice it has received surprisingly little academic attention This interdisciplinary collection by leading scholars in the field is dedicated to fascinating new insights into divination and oracles arising from recent work in anthropology religious studies history and classical studies Central importance is given to the practical and theoretical perspectives of diviners as well as scholars of divination several contributors are both This book explores philosophical issues such as the nature of divinatory intelligence the relationship between divinatory and metaphorical truth the primacy of ontology over epistemology the importance of reflexivity in scholarly studies of divination and astrology as the principal Western form of divination The ethnographic and historical examples range from contemporary Nigeria urban Cuba Mayan Guatemala and the shamanic cultures of the circumpolar Arctic to classical Greece and ancient Judea

The Manual of Ethnography Marcel Mauss, 2009-09 Marcel Mauss 1872-1950 was the leading social anthropologist in Paris between the world wars and his Manuel d'ethnographie dating from that period is the longest of all his texts Despite having had four editions in France the Manuel has hitherto been unavailable in English This contrasts with his essays longer and shorter many of which have long enjoyed the status of classics within anthropology We are therefore pleased to present in the English language for the first time this extraordinary work that is based on the more than thirty lectures Mauss delivered each year under the title Instructions in descriptive ethnography intended for travelers administrators and missionaries Despite his dates Mauss's treatment of fundamental questions such as how to conceptualize and classify the range of social phenomena known to us from history and ethnography has lost none of its freshness
