The Hallelujah Flight:

The Hallelujah Flight Phil Bildner, 2010-01-07 The extraordinary story of James Banning the first African American pilot to fly across country During the Great Depression the ace black pilot James Banning decided to fly from coast to coast to serve as an inspiration to people everywhere So with a little ingenuity and a whole lot of heart he fixed up the dilapidated OXX6 Eagle Rock plane with his co pilot and mechanic Thomas Allen earning them the derisive nickname The Flying Hobos But with the help of friends and family along the way who signed their names on the wings of the plane in exchange for food fuel and supplies Banning and Allen made it through treacherous weather and overcame ruthless prejudice to receive a heroes welcome upon landing in New York on October 9 1932 This exceptional story of determination and pride shown through John Holyfield s energetic flight scenes and sweeping landscapes will put you in the cockpit right alongside Banning and Allen as they complete the journey of a lifetime The Hallelujah Flight Jack Lynn, 1989 The Hallelujah Flight Jack Lynn, 1998-03 Without sponsorship or ceremony united only by their passion for flying James H Banning Thomas C Allen two black aviators took off from Dycer Airport Los Angeles in their extraordinary ancient patched up aircraft with only 25 00 to their names to make aviation history to become the first black Americans to fly across America from coast to coast Beset by overwhelming odds facing ridicule racial bigotry enduring hostility outright violence this duo begged borrowed their way across the continent making over 20 scheduled unscheduled stops on their action packed journey Up in the Air Philip S. Hart, 2009-08-01 When she was growing up in Waxahachie Texas in the early 1900s young Bessie Coleman had to do without a lot of things Because she was black she went to inferior schools Because her mother worked to support the family Bessie often had to stay at home to watch her younger sisters But Bessie Coleman always knew she would make something of her life In 1920 she became the first African American woman to fly an airplane Struggling against prejudice and lack of funds Coleman built a career as a barn storming pilot in the 1920s Although she did not live to realize her dream of opening a school for black aviators she was by her example a source of inspiration to generations of flyers dreamers and achievers to come Flight*, 1922 American Historical Fiction* Lynda G. Adamson, 1998-10-21 This publication will fill a gap in the bibliographic reference shelf by identifying historical novels for both adult and young adult readers I American Historical Fiction R contains over 3 000 titles set in states and historical regions of the United States Entries are organized by time period The newest titles as well as old favorites are covered The volume is indexed by author title genre subject and geographic setting Getting at the Core of the Common Core with Social Studies Thomas N. Turner, Jeremiah Clabough, William Cole, 2014-11-01 For social studies teachers reeling from the buffeting of top down educational reforms this volume offers answers to questions about dealing with the Common Core State Standards CCSS Each chapter presents and reviews pertinent standards that relate to the social studies Each chapter also deals with significant topics in the social studies from various social sciences to processes such as inquiry to key skills needed for success in social studies such as analysis and literacy The most important aspect of these chapters though is the array of adaptable activities that is included in each chapter Teachers can find practical approaches to dealing with CCSS across the social studies panorama The multiple authorships of the various chapters mean a variety of perspectives and viewpoints are presented All of the authors have fought in the trenches of K 12 public education Their activities reflect this in a way that will be useful to novice or veteran teachers
