C. Heath And Company,2018-01-19 Excerpt from The Heath Readers Third Reader The poetry for this grade has been selected with care for what is childlike and at the same time of high literary merit The Great Ones of the past wrote chie y for the adult mind with small account of childish taste and capacity But here and there gleam precious bits golden bright which the little ones of all time will eagerly seize and cherish The Third Reader has endeavored to remember this in its selections The fairy tales and folk lore included have the merit of novelty as well as fascination many of the selections never having appeared before in a reading book It has been the aim to provide interesting material full of action and upon subjects children like and from the child s point of view There has been no effort to preach or to force a moral but bright and lovely ideals have been presented in a cheerful and natural way All material has been graded with unusual care to avoid sudden and extreme leaps from that which is easy to that which is difficult Acknowledgment is due to those whose helpful aid has made the Third Reader what it is About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Heath Readers; Fifth Reader D C Heath And Company,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1903 edition Excerpt And we heard the distant and random gun That the foe was sullenly firing Slowly and sadly we laid him down From the field of his fame fresh and gory We carved not a line and we raised not a stone But we left him alone in his glory up braid to charge with something I reckon care take heed wrong I go ry covered with blood Charles Wolfe 1791 1823 was a native of Dublin Ireland and a graduate of Trinity College where he was famed for scholarship and literary ability Besides this renowned poem Wolfe wrote one or two songs full of tender pathos and delicate beauty GRASS JOHN RUSKIN Gather a single blade of grass and examine for a minute its narrow sword shaped strip of fluted green Nothing there as it seems is of notable goodness or beauty There is a very little strength and a very little tallness and a few delicate long lines meeting in a point not a perfect point either but blunt and unfinished by no means a creditable or apparently much cared for example of Nature s workmanship made as it seems only to be trodden on to day and to morrow to be cast into the oven There is also a little pale and hollow stalk feeble and flaccid leading down to the dull brown fibres of roots And yet think of it well and judge whether of all the gorgeous flowers that beam in summer air and of all strong and goodly trees pleasant to the eyes or good for food stately palm and pine strong ash and oak scented

citron burdened vine there be any by man so deeply loved by God so highly graced as that narrow point of feeble green
