The Nigerian Economic Crisis Causes And Solutions:

The Nigerian Economic Crisis Alkasum Abba, 1985 Modernization and the Crisis of Development in Africa Jeremiah I. Dibua, 2017-11-28 In this book Jeremiah I Dibua challenges prevailing notions of Africa's development crisis by drawing attention to the role of modernization as a way of understanding the nature and dynamics of the crisis and how to overcome the problem of underdevelopment. He specifically focuses on Nigeria and its development trajectory since it exemplifies the crisis of underdevelopment in the continent. He explores various theoretical and empirical issues involved in understanding the crisis including state, class, gender and culture, often neglected in analysis from an interdisciplinary radical political economy perspective. This is the first book to adopt such an approach and to develop a new framework for analyzing Nigeria's and Africa's development crisis. It will influence the debate on the development dilemma of African and Third World societies and will be of interest to scholars and students of race and ethnicity, modern African history, class analysis, gender studies and development studies.

Economic Reforms and Modernization in Nigeria, 1945-1965 Toyin Falola, 2004 Created as a result of British colonialism, Nigeria emerged as a nation state during the mid 20th century. Toyin Falola presents statistical data on Nigeria's economy that illustrate the nature of the changes made throughout the mid 20th century.

Development and Diffusionism J. Dibua, 2015-12-04 This book deconstructs the neopatrimonial paradigm that has dominated analysis of Nigerian and African development. It shows that by denying agency to Nigerian societies and devaluing indigenous culture and local realities, Eurocentric diffusionism played a significant role in the failure of development planning.

Structural Adjustment and Socio-economic Change in Sub-Saharan Africa Peter Gibbon, Adebayo O. Olukoshi, 1996 This report summarises the results of work at the Nordiska Afrikainstitutet (Nordic Africa Institute, NAI) on the impact of structural adjustment implementation on the economies, states and societies of sub-Saharan Africa. It consists of two essays and an appendix listing research projects which have been or are being carried out under the auspices of NAI. The first essay raises a series of conceptual and methodological questions in the context of a presentation of some of the main empirical results obtained from extended field work carried out during the course of 1992 and 1993 in Kenya, Tanzania and Zimbabwe. The second essay presents the three main themes: private trading networks and structures, the changing political economy of land and popular forms of social provisioning that constitute the core of the second phase of NAI's structural adjustment research and in so doing provides a review of aspects of the adjustment literature. This report is therefore an attempt both at stock taking and agenda building as part of a wider quest for deepening our understanding of the structures and processes of socio-economic change associated with the crisis and adjustment years in contemporary Africa.

Poverty in Nigeria Mustapha C. Duze, 2008-05-20 One of the critical concerns in Nigeria is how to alleviate poverty in the country. The general prevalence of poverty in Nigeria is paradoxical because the country is one of the biggest oil producing countries in the world. A 1999 World Bank report for instance showed that some 70 per cent of the population lives below the bread line usually considered as living on less than US 1 00 a day This raises a number of very important questions What are really responsible for the wide prevalence of poverty in Nigeria in the midst of plenty How is poverty manifested in the country What alleviation strategies are in place How effective are they And what are the implications of all these for the country s democracy project political stability nation building and development discourse Contributors to this volume address these questions and provide insights into some of the central issues in the discussion of poverty including how the poor themselves struggle to cope or adapt to their condition Using multidisciplinary perspectives the contributors critique the current alleviation strategies and recommend more viable and better targeted approaches that will sharply reduce the incidence of poverty in Nigeria The
