The No Nonsense Guide To HivAids:

The No-Nonsense Guide To Hiv/Aids Shereen Usdin, 2005-01-01 The No-Nonsense Guide to HIV/AIDS Shereen Usdin, 2003 HIV AIDS is one of the worst pandemics in human history It has left no country untouched but global responses to its spread have largely been slow and inadequate many efforts have been initiated have been hampered by racism homophobia stigma gender inequality and grinding poverty However doomsday predictions can be scrapped if we all act now This No Nonsense Guide examines the history and the course of the pandemic the many factors intensifying its spread and what needs to be done to turn the tide While this is the story of a major world tragedy it also includes inspiring social and community movements that reaffirm the resilience of the human spirit and offer hope for our future The No-Nonsense Guide to World Health Shereen Usdin, 2007 A history of modern healthcare shows that public health is largely determined by socio economic factors The No-nonsense Guide to Islam Ziauddin Sardar, Merryl Wyn Davies, 2004 Even before 11 September 2001 Muslims were generally viewed in the West as enemies of freedom and progress Yet there is far more to Islam than the stereotypical Occidental view This No Nonsense Guide looks at how Islam a complex faith and civilization can reconcile itself with the twenty first century Critically minded Muslims everywhere are rethinking and reformulating Islam as a contemporary moral and ethical force Merryl Wyn Davies and Zia Sardar explain the Islamic worldview examining the Qur'an and Islamic law sharia Islam's relationship with the West and its contemporary nature They analyse the struggle within the faith for a more humane and holistic interpretation of their religion examine the issues surrounding women democracy and economic development and suggest how we can all move forward after 9 11 The No-nonsense Guide to Global Media Peter Steven, 2003 The power and influence of the mass media grows daily crucially affecting the way all of us see and understand each other The No Nonsense Guide to Global Media introduces readers to the political economy of the major media film television radio recording publishing and the Internet Peter Steven looks at the ever greater concentration of ownership and at the convergence of technologies and media functions At the same time he emphasizes the diversity of local media production and media around the world The media is more than the economics of ownership and the technology of production he stresses it is also audiences in all their annoying and wonderful diversity The No-nonsense Guide to Women's Rights Nikki van der Gaag, 2004 How much has life really changed for women during the last decade Has the women's movement affected women all over the world Has it changed women's relationships with men Nikki van der Gaag answers these questions with hard sometimes disturbing evidence Many women have made huge leaps forward in legal rights political representation employment education health but beneath the surface the statistics are shocking Vivid testimonies from women and men around the world explain why especially in this post feminist age women's rights are still very much an issue for men and women alike She has made a special effort to correct many of the misconceptions and biases related to the feminist movement to link the liberation of women who constitute half of society to the liberation of men and to the dispossessed majority living on earth from the introduction by Nawal El Saadawi

The No-nonsense Guide to Water Maggie Black, 2004 Water sustains life without it humans cannot survive for more than a few days And yet this precious fluid is becoming increasingly politicized as the debates about control and ownership of water itself and of the many organizations which govern its use gain force Maggie Black explores the many roles water plays in human life and as the defense of water rights looks set to become an explosive issue provides a clear overview on the vital issues of distribution technology irrigation land use and commodification

The No-nonsense Guide to World Poverty Jeremy Seabrook, 2003 At the turn of the new millennium the United Nations determined that world poverty would be halved by 2015 International agencies are all committed to poverty abatement The International Monetary Fund and the World Bank have renamed their structural adjustment policies poverty reduction strategies But can this work No argues Jeremy Seabrook not if we fail to understand the meaning of poverty Drawing on testimonies from around the world as well as on the hard facts he challenges the assumption that wealth overcomes poverty and demonstrates that the opposite of poor is not rich but self reliant Appealing passionately for a shared sense of sufficiency he gives verbal snapshots of people s lives to show how poverty shifts changes and endures in response to the growth of wealth

The No-Nonsense Guide to International Development Maggie Black, 2007-10-01 Overseas aid and international development are catch all terms that cover a multitude of activities and abuses This guide explains what development actually is and explores its political and economic roots It shows what can happen in the name of development and argues for a more organic social approach with those it seeks to serve as equal partners in the process Maggie Black has written books for the Oxford University Press UNICEF and Oxfam She has worked as a consultant for UNICEF Anti Slavery International and WaterAid among others and has written for the Guardian The Economist and BBC World Service
