Sinking Of The I Am Alone:

The Gambler and the Scholars John F. Dooley, 2023-04-05 In May 1917 William and Elizebeth Friedman were asked by the U S Army to begin training officers in cryptanalysis and to decrypt intercepted German diplomatic and military communications In June 1917 Herbert Yardley convinced the new head of the Army s Military Intelligence Division to create a code and cipher section for the Army with himself as its head These two seminal events were the beginning of modern American cryptology the growth of which culminated 35 years later with the creation of the National Security Agency Each running their own cryptologic agencies in the 1920s the Friedman Yardley relationship was shattered after Yardley published a tell all book about his time in military intelligence Yet in the end the work they all started in 1917 led directly to the modern American intelligence community As they got older they became increasingly irrelevant in the burgeoning American cryptologic fraternity Topics and features Examines the lives of three remarkable and pioneering cryptologists Offers fascinating insights into spies codes and ciphers rumrunners poker and military history Sheds new light on interesting parts of the cryptologists careers especially Elizebeth Friedman whose work during World War II has just begun to be explored Recounts several good stories i e What if the Friedmans had gone to work for Herbert Yardley in his new Cipher Bureau in 1919 What if Yardley had moved back to Washington to work for William Friedman a decade later This enjoyable book has wide appeal for general readers interested in the evolution of American cryptology American historians particularly of World War I the inter war period and World War II signals intelligence and historians of and general readers interested in American military intelligence It also can be used as an auxiliary text or recommended reading in introductory or survey courses in history or on the related topics The Sinking of INS Khukri: Survivor's Stories Major General Ian Cardozo, 2006-12-01 9

December 1971 8 45 p m Torpedoed by a Pakistani submarine the INS Khukri sank within minutes Along with the ship 178 sailors and 18 officers made the supreme sacrifice Last seen calmly puffing on his cigarette Captain Mahendra Nath Mulla captain of the Khukri chose to go down with his ship This defining moment of the 1971 war between India and Pakistan is the basis of Major General Ian Cardozo s attempt to understand what happened that day and why Major General Cardozo brings fresh insight into the hellish ordeal by including the heartfelt accounts of the survivors and of the members of their families These accounts transform the stereotypical understanding of the incident they also supplement it We glimpse fear trauma and death at first hand In the annals of war writing General Cardozo humanizes this cataclysmic event as never before
