Bonn, 2005 Condensed from Army regulations and the customs and traditions of the service this guide provides soldier information and advice on a variety of issues relating to service life Useful for army officers it also includes a directory of contemporary Army Internet sites and installations worldwide Making Trifles of Terrors Harry Berger, Peter Erickson, 1997 This collection of essays includes some of the most recent work of a master critic at the height of his powers Of the fourteen essays written from the late 1970's to the present three have never before been published the essays appearance in a single volume makes available for the first time the full scope of Berger's unique approach to ethical discourses in Shakespeare's plays The sequence of essays displays both the continuity and the revisionary development that mark his critical practice since the early work on The Tempest Troilus and Cressida and the Elizabethan theater When one compares Berger's earlier work from the 1960's with the writing from the 1980's and 1990's in the present collection one sees that the difference stems primarily from the impact on the later work of his encounters with the whole range of structuralist and poststructuralist theory Much of the excitement and vitality of Berger's current work comes from his efforts to incorporate new methodological influences into his previous system Because he comes to poststructuralism as a mature critic whose larger interpretive framework is already in place his response is not simply to immerse himself in the new theoretical modes and adopt them wholesale but rather to make them his own Among the plays discussed are The Merchant of Venice Much Ado About Nothing King Lear Macbeth 2 Henry IV Richard II and in two of the new essays 1 Henry IV and Measure for Measure Also new is Berger's retrospective account of his critical development in the extensive opening Acknowledgments The Cambridge History of American Literature: Volume 7, Prose Writing, 1940-1990 Sacvan Bercovitch, Cyrus R. K. Patell, 1994 Volume VII of the Cambridge History of American Literature examines a broad range of American literature of the past half century revealing complex relations to changes in society Christopher Bigsby discusses American dramatists from Tennessee Williams to August Wilson showing how innovations in theatre anticipated a world of emerging countercultures and provided America with an alternative view of contemporary life Morris Dickstein describes the condition of rebellion in fiction from 1940 to 1970 linking writers as diverse as James Baldwin and John Updike John Burt examines writers of the American South describing the tensions between modernization and continued entanglements with the past Wendy Steiner examines the postmodern fictions since 1970 and shows how the questioning of artistic assumptions has broadened the canon of American literature Finally Cyrus Patell highlights the voices of Native American Asian American Chicano gay and lesbian writers often marginalized but here discussed within and against a broad set of national traditions
