Slack could also appear in the way a company treats employees: instead of loading them up with overwork, a company designed with slack allows its people room to breathe, increase effectiveness, and reinvent themselves. In thirty-three short chapters filled with creative learning tools and charts, you and your company can learn how to: “make sense of the Efficiency/Flexibility quandary” “run directly toward risk instead of away from it” “strengthen the creative role of middle management” “make change and growth work together
