The Worlds of Sherlock Holmes Andrew Lycett, 2023-10-05 Questioning was Sherlock Holmes s business He famously adopted the latest forensic techniques channelled the Victorian passion for enquiry kept abreast of the key scientific breakthroughs of his age and conducted his investigations in an enigmatic and stylised manner And the brains behind it all was of course the great Arthur Conan Doyle In this deep dive into the contemporary world of Holmes and Conan Doyle biographer Andrew Lycett explores all that encompasses the world of the great detective tracing the infamous character's own interests personality and mythologised biography alongside that of his creator's From the Victorian crazes for detection and science to contemporary developments in science and psychology Lycett weaves together everything that inspired Conan Doyle in creating the world's most famous detective and one of fiction's most enduring enigmatic and recognisable characters Who Is Sherlock? Lynnette Porter, 2016-06-30 Nearly 130 years after the introduction of Sherlock Holmes to readers the Great Detective's identity is being questioned deconstructed and reconstructed more than ever Readers and audiences not to mention scholars and critics continue to analyze who Sherlock Holmes is or has become and why and how his identity has been formed in a specific way The films Sherlock Holmes Sherlock Holmes A Game of Shadows and Mr Holmes and television series Sherlock and Elementary have introduced wildly divergent yet fascinating portrayals that reveal as much about current social mores and popular culture as about the detective More than ever fans also are taking an active role in creating their own identities for Holmes through fan fiction and art for example Who is Sherlock Holmes is still a viable question The answers provided by illustrators scriptwriters directors costume designers set designers actors scholars and fans provide insights into both Victorian and the modern day Sherlock Like the many disguises the Great Detective has donned throughout canon and adaptations his perceived identities may be surprising or shocking but they continue to make us look ever more closely to discover the real Sherlock Holmes

A Companion to the Biopic Deborah Cartmell, Ashley D. Polasek, 2020-01-15 The most comprehensive reference text of theoretical and historical discourse on the biopic film The biopic often viewed as the most reviled of all film genres traces its origins to the early silent era over a century ago Receiving little critical attention biopics are regularly dismissed as superficial formulaic and disrespectful of history Film critics literary scholars and historians tend to believe that biopics should be artistic yet accurate true to life representations of their subjects Moviegoing audiences however do not seem to hold similar views biopics continue to be popular commercially viable films Even the genre's most ardent detractors will admit that these films are often very watchable particularly due to the performance of the lead actor It is increasingly common for stars of biographical films to garner critical praise and awards driving a growing interest in scholarship in the genre A Companion to the Biopic is the first global and authoritative reference on the subject Offering theoretical historical thematic and performance based approaches this unique volume brings together the work of top scholars to discuss the coverage of the lives of authors politicians royalty criminals and pop stars through the biopic film Chapters explore evolving attitudes and divergent perspectives on the genre with topics such as the connections between biopics and literary melodramas the influence financial concerns have on aesthetic social or moral principles the merger of historical narratives with Hollywood biographies stereotypes and criticisms of the biopic genre and more This volume Provides a systematic in depth analysis of the biopic and considers how the choice of historical subject reflects contemporary issues Places emphasis on films that portray race and gender issues Explores the uneven boundaries of the genre by addressing what is and is not a biopic as well as the ways in which films simultaneously embrace and defy historical authenticity Examines the distinction between reality and the real in biographical films Offers a chronological survey of biopics from the beginning of the 20th century A Companion to the Biopic is a valuable resource for researchers scholars and students of history film studies and English literature as well as those in disciplines that examine interpretations of historical figures The Bloomsbury Handbook to Ageing in Contemporary Literature and Film Sarah Falcus, Heike Hartung, Raquel Medina, 2023-06-29 Across more than 30 chapters spanning migration queerness and climate change this handbook captures how the interdisciplinary and intersectional endeavor of Age ing studies has shaped contemporary literary and film studies In the early 21st century the literary study of age and ageing in its cultural context has come of age it has come to supplement and challenge a public discourse on ageing seen mainly as a political and demographic problem in many countries of the world Following a tripartite structure it looks first at literary and film genres and how they have been shaped by knowledge about age and ageing incorporating both narrative genres as well as poetry drama and imagery The second section includes chapters on key themes and concepts in Age ing Studies with examples from film and literature The third section brings together case studies focussing on individual artists national traditions and global ageing Containing original contributions by pioneers in the field as well as new scholars from across the globe it brings together current scholarship on ageing in literary and film studies and offers new directions and perspectives The Introspective Realist Crime Film Luis M. García-Mainar, 2016-06-10 This book explores the formal and thematic conventions of crime film the contexts in which these have flourished and their links with the social issues of a globalized world The crime film has traditionally been identified with suspense a heterogeneous aesthetic and a tacit social mind However a good number of the crime films produced since the early 2000s have shifted their focus from action or suspense and towards melodrama in narratives that highlight the social dimension of crime intensify their realist aesthetics and dwell on subjectivity With the 1940s wave of Hollywood semi documentary crime films and 1970s generic revisionism as antecedents these crime films find inspiration in Hollywood cinema and constitute a transnational trend With a close look at Steven Soderbergh's Traffic 2000 David Fincher's Zodiac 2007 Jacques Audiard's Un prophète 2009 and Tomas Alfredson's Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy 2011 this book sets out the stylistic and thematic conventions contexts and cultural significance of a new transnational trend in crime film Sherlock Holmes Mystery Magazine #18 Arthur Conan Doyle, 2015-09-18 Sherlock Holmes Mystery Magazine returns with issue 18 presenting the best in modern and classic mystery fiction Included this time are the usual column by Dr John H Watson plus the following works Screen of the Crime by Kim Newman Mr Holmes by Lynne Stephens Matters Mathematical by S Brent Morris Novel vs Screenplay How I Love Thee
