The song of the shepherd king [Psalm 23]. Reginald Crabb Burr, 1911 Song of the Shepherd Mark Tabb, 1999 Who wants to be a sheep The twenty third Psalm begins The Lord is my Shepherd While we often think of this phrase as a comforting and beautiful affirmation of God's love for us we rarely stop to think of its implications If God is our Shepherd that makes us sheep Mindless passive dependant animals that will follow anything that catches their attention Stupid creatures that must be watched at all times lest they be a detriment to themselves Yet that's how the Bible refers to God's people time and time again If God is to be our Shepherd then we need to be His sheep We must surrender our stubborn wills to His direction bow to his discipline and acknowledge His sovereignty over all heaven and earth Join Mark Tabb as he studies the life of God's sheep and encourages us to live each day surrendered to our Shepherd in Song of the Shepherd The Swan Song of the Old Shepherd J. D. Watson, 2013-06 This 50 page book reproduces a four part series first preached by the author in July 2010 While it takes only about 40 seconds to read its 118 words Psalm 23 is among the most comforting passages in all of Scripture Its language is not scientific philosophical legal or even all that theological It is short simple and sweet but oh so sublime Oddly sermons on Psalm 23 are often preached only at funerals for here are truths that are not for the dead but for the living David refers to the LORD as his Shepherd and a Shepherd is for the living sheep not the dead ones This psalm is for every child of God for every aspect of life now So using common ancient near eastern images one expositor observes David progressively unveils his personal relationship with the LORD In beautiful poetry David provides us with five emphases After first speaking of the Shepherd's person he then exults in what he receives from his Shepherd provision paths protection and permanence Psalm 23 David Roper, 1996 Roper looks at this restful Christian image from the perspective of twentieth century restlessness He gives portrayals of the contented follower in an age of dissatisfaction the trusting follower in an age of doubt and deceit and the restful follower in an age of activism Catalogue of Choral Music Arranged in Biblical Order James Laster, 2002 The Supplement continues the tradition of the Catalogue in that it is designed as an aid for the church musician and or pastor seeking to plan unified worship services It will also be of use to those church musicians who follow the Liturgical Calendar and plan music appropriate to the appointed lessons as well as a source for non church choir directors who would like to locate choral settings based on a particular passage from Scripture The Supplement emphasizes music published since 1995 or titles that were overlooked in the previous editions Entries are arranged from Genesis through Revelation Each main entry citation provides the biblical reference book chapter and verse as well as a reference to additional passages from Scripture used in the anthem The composer arranger or editor and the title are listed as they appear on the octavo Information on voicing solos and instrumental accompaniment is noted the name of
