Sorel In Love:

Sorel in Love Barbara Sorel, 1990 Love's Conflict Florence Marryat, 1865 Bitter Sweet Noel Coward, 1929

Love's Conflict. A novel Florence Marryat, 1869 Love's Labour's Lost William Shakespeare, 1598 Love's Labour's Lost now recognized as one of the most delightful and stageworthy of Shakespeare's comedies came into its own both on the stage and in critical esteem only during the 1930s and 1940s after three hundred years of neglect by the theatre and undervaluation and misuse by critics The Introduction to this new edition pays particular attention to this process of rehabilitation The text based on the quarto of 1598 and taking full account of the extensive scholarly study that text has received over recent years rests on the hypothesis that the quarto goes back probably by way of lost quarto to an authorial manuscript representing the play in a state prior to fair copy If this is so the quarto takes on a special significance because through it we can watch Shakespeare in the act of composition improvising changing his mind and revising as his play develops under his hand The editor offers a number of new readings of difficult and disputed passages together with some suggestions about the way in which the play's notorious tangles may have come about A detailed commentary offers full and helpful guidance to the play's scintillating language Studies in Language and Literature University of Minnesota, 1914

Decolonizing Dialectics Geo Maher, 2017-01-06 Anticolonial theorists and revolutionaries have long turned to dialectical thought as a central weapon in their fight against oppressive structures and conditions This relationship was never easy however as anticolonial thinkers have resisted the historical determinism teleology Eurocentrism and singular emphasis that some Marxisms place on class identity at the expense of race nation and popular identity In recent decades the conflict between dialectics and postcolonial theory has only deepened In Decolonizing Dialectics Geo Maher breaks this impasse by bringing the work of Georges Sorel Frantz Fanon and Enrique Dussel together with contemporary Venezuelan politics to formulate a dialectics suited to the struggle against the legacies of colonialism and slavery This is a decolonized dialectics premised on constant struggle in which progress must be fought for and where the struggles of the wretched of the earth themselves provide the only guarantee of historical motion Coward Plays: 1 Noël Coward, 2013-12-02 This first volume in the Coward Collection contains four plays written within a two year period when Coward and the century were still in their 20s The volume is introduced by Sheridan Morley Coward's first biographer Hay Fever a comedy of bad manners concerns a weekend with friends of the Bliss family who have all been invited independently for a weekend at their country house near Maidenhead The Vortex was a controversial drama in its time introducing drug addiction onto the stage at a time when alcoholism was barely mentioned Fallen Angels which is written for two star actresses was described as degenerate vile obscene shocking the second half of the play is entirely taken up with an alcoholic duologue between the two women Easy Virtue is an elegant laconic tribute to a lost world of drawing room dramas no other writer went more directly to the jugular of that moralistic tight lipped but fundamentally hypocritical 20s society He is simply a phenomenon and one that is unlikely to occur ever again in theatre history Terence Rattigan The Annual of Psychoanalysis, V. 32 Jerome A. Winer, James W. Anderson, 2013-05-13 Psychoanalysis and Women Volume 32 of The Annual of Psychoanalysis is a stunning reprise on theoretical developmental and clinical issues that have engaged analysts from Freud on It begins with clinical contributions by Joyce McDougall and Lynne Layton two theorists at the forefront of clinical work with women Jessica Benjamin Julia Kristeva and Ethel Spector Person from their respective vantage points all engage the issue of passivity which Freud tended to equate with femininity Employing a self psychological framework Christine Kieffer returns to the Oedipus complex and sheds new light on the typically Pyrrhic oedipal victory of little girls Section III broadens the historical context of contemporary theorizing about women by offering the personal reminiscences of Nancy Chodorow Carol Gilligan Brenda Solomon and Malkah Notman A final section dedicated to women who shared psychoanalysis features historical essays on Ida Bauer Freud's Dora Anna Freud Dorothy Burlingham Edith Jacobson and Therese Benedek along with Linda Hopkins's revealing interview of Marion Milner Of special note is Marian Tolpin's examination of three women Bauer Helene Deutsch and Anna Freud who helped shape Freud's notion of the female castration complex and Elisabeth Young Bruehl's exploration of how two women Anna Freud and Dorothy Burlingham developed parent infant observation Psychoanalysis and Women is an extraordinary chronicle of the distance traveled since Freud characterized women's sexual life as the dark continent The contributors vitalize a half century of theory with the lessons of biography and they broaden clinical sensibilities by drawing on recent developmental gender related and socio psychological research In doing so they attest to the ongoing reconfiguration of Freud's dark continent and show the psychoanalytic psychology of women to be very much a revolution in progress Hay Fever Noel Coward, 1927
