Tuscan Spaces Silvia M. Ross, 2010-05-01 An important locus for English speaking writers the region of Tuscany is also well represented in the Italian literary canon In Tuscan Spaces Silvia Ross focuses on constructions of Tuscany in twentieth century Italian literature and juxtaposes them with English prose works by such authors as E M Forster and Frances Mayes to expose the complexity of literary representation centred on a single milieu Ross uses the works of writers such as Federigo Tozzi Aldo Palazzeschi Vasco Pratolini and Elena Gianini Belotti to seek out alternative visions of Tuscan space and emphasizes that each author fashions the region in a manner which reflects their personal poetics background and experiences Theories of cultural geography space travel and narrative contribute to Ross's consideration of the dualisms commonly employed in writings about Tuscany such as country city nature culture female male and self other all of which are in turn affected by her interrogation of the local foreign opposition that underlies the study as a whole

Twentieth-century Italian Literature in English Translation Robin Healey, 1998-01-01 This bibliography lists English language translations of twentieth century Italian literature published chiefly in book form between 1929 and 1997 encompassing fiction poetry plays screenplays librettos journals and diaries and correspondence Italian Film Marcia Landy, 2000-04-13 Examines the extraordinary cinematic tradition of Italy from the silent era to the present Antonio Pietrangeli, The Director of Women Emma Katherine Van Ness, 2020-04-30 One of the founding fathers of neorealism in the postwar period in Italy Antonio Pietrangeli went on to focus his lens upon the female subject Eight of his ten full length films feature female protagonists This study seeks to better understand both his achievements and his failings as a feminist auteur as well as analyse his films by applying new critical and theoretical approaches Pietrangeli's representations of women struggling with questions of identity was a revolutionary act in the 1950s and 1960s The book makes a case why we should recuperate these films today since the standards for representing women in film continue to fall behind the reality of women's lives off screen Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies: A-J Gaetana Marrone, 2007 Publisher description

Architecture and the Novel under the Italian Fascist Regime Francesca Billiani, Laura Pennacchietti, 2019-09-14

Architecture and the Novel under the Italian Fascist Regime discusses the relationship between the novel and architecture during the Fascist period in Italy 1922-1943 By looking at two profoundly diverse aesthetic phenomena within the context of the creation of a Fascist State art Billiani and Pennacchietti argue that an effort of construction or reconstruction was the main driving force behind both projects the advocated revolution of the novel form realism and that of architecture rationalism The book is divided into seven chapters which in turn analyze the interconnections between the novel and architecture in theory and in practice The first six chapters cover debates on State art on the novel and on architecture as well as their historical development and their unfolding in key journals of the period The last chapter offers a detailed analysis of some important novels and buildings which have in practice realized some of the key principles articulated in the theoretical disputes Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies Gaetana Marrone, Paolo Puppa, 2006-12-26 The Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies is a two volume reference book containing some 600 entries on all aspects of Italian literary culture It includes analytical essays on authors and works from the most important figures of Italian literature to little known authors and works that are influential to the field The Encyclopedia is distinguished by substantial articles on critics themes genres schools historical surveys and other topics related to the overall subject of Italian literary studies The Encyclopedia also includes writers and subjects of contemporary interest such as those relating to journalism film media children s literature food and vernacular literatures Entries consist of an essay on the topic and a bibliographic portion listing works for further reading and in the case of entries on individuals a brief biographical paragraph and list of works by the person It will be useful to people without specialized knowledge of Italian literature as well as to scholars Exploring the

Translatability of Emotions Susan Petrilli, Meng Ji, 2022-03-09 This book offers an in depth cross cultural and transdisciplinary discussion of the translatability of social emotions The contributors are leading philosophers semioticians anthropologists communication and translation theorists from Europe America and Australia Part I explores the translatability of emotions as a culturally embedded social behaviour that requires a contextualized interpretation of their origins and development in different social and cultural settings These studies make useful preparations for the studies introduced in Part II that continue investigating the cultural and sociological influence of the development of social emotions with a special focus on the dialogical relation to the body and to others Part III presses on delving into specific types of emotions which underscore social interactions at both the community and individual levels such as dignity im politeness self regard and self esteem Finally Part IV offers a further development on the preceding parts as it discusses problems of translation expressibility and mass medial communication of emotions This book will engage translation scholars as well as those with a broader interest in the study and interpretation of emotions from different fields perspectives and disciplines

Fascism in Film Marcia Landy, 2014-07-14 Through her study of the narrative themes and strategies of Italian commercial sound films of the fascist era Marcia Landy shows that cultural life under fascism was not monopolized by official propaganda Originally published in 1986 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
