Soul Train:

A Critical History of Soul Train on Television Christopher P. Lehman, 2008-04-30 As a wildly popular local dance show Soul Train provided a venue for Chicago's soul singers and political activists and gave African American teenagers their first significant chance to see and identify with their peers on television The subsequent national series garnered even more popularity establishing producer and host Don Cornelius as one of the most successful pioneers of African American television production This work discusses Cornelius's role in the evolution of his groundbreaking series from a small all black 1970s television show to a lucrative brand name applying not only to the program but also to awards and various merchandise in the present day The first two chapters focus on Cornelius's years in Chicago and the initial launching of Soul Train in 1970 The next two chapters explore how the nationally televised California based version of the show rose steadily in both popularity and cultural influence among primarily African American viewers and how Cornelius himself became a rising celebrity during that time The final chapters illustrate Cornelius's efforts in branching out beyond the dance show through various music related business ventures including the Soul Train Music Awards The work includes interviews with several former cast members and guests along with a complete chronology of the series and Cornelius's other professional ventures

Franklin Questlove reveals the remarkable story of the captivating program and his text is paired with more than 350 photographs of the show's most memorable episodes and the larger than life characters who defined it the great host Don Cornelius the extraordinary musicians and the people who lived the phenomenon from dance floor Love, Peace and Soul Ericka Blount Danois, 2013-08-01 Love Peace and Soul tells the story of the television phenomenon known as Soul Train a show created in the land of bell bottoms afros and soul power a show that became the touchstone of the Baby Boomer generation Don Cornelius host and owner of the show was one of the coolest cats on television With his platform shoes wide neckties and mellifluous voice he showed the world just how corny American Bandstand was in comparison In 2012 fans were shocked to hear one of the most powerful men in the music and television business took his own life Love Peace and Soul is a celebratory behind the scenes collection of anecdotes stories and reflections from the people who were there about the host the show and the power of black music and dance on television Music and television connoisseurs will enjoy the history of not just Soul Train but of other shows including Shindig Don Kirshner's Rock Concert Hullabaloo American Bandstand and Graffiti Rock Entrepreneurs will be interested in Cornelius humble beginnings with the local version of the show in Chicago created with his own money Fans will delight in the lively images and the quirky details The first mass market book on Soul Train since Cornelius's passing this volume has something for everyone Includes afterword by Gary Harris Ebony, 1978-08 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine The Hippest Trip in America Nelson George, 2014-03-25 An authoritative history of the groundbreaking syndicated television show that has become an icon of American pop culture from acclaimed author and filmmaker Nelson George the most accomplished black music critic of his generation Washington Post Book World When it debuted in October 1971 seven years after the Civil Rights Act Soul Train boldly went where no variety show had gone before showcasing the cultural preferences of young African Americans and the sounds that defined their lives R Marvin Gaye and Elton John to the New Kids on the Block and Stevie Wonder The Hippest Trip in America tells the full story of this pop culture phenomenon that appealed not only to blacks but to a wide crossover audience as well Famous dancers like Rosie Perez and Jody Watley performers such as Aretha Franklin Al Green and Barry White and Cornelius himself share their memories offering insights into the show and its time a period of extraordinary social and political change Colorful and pulsating The Hippest Trip In America is a fascinating portrait of a revered cultural institution that has left an indelible mark on our national consciousness A Critical History of Soul Train on Television Christopher P. Lehman, 2014-11-26 As a wildly popular local dance show Soul Train provided a venue for Chicago's soul singers and political activists and gave African American teenagers their first significant chance to see and identify with their peers on television The subsequent national series garnered even more popularity establishing producer and host Don Cornelius as one of the most successful pioneers of African American television production This work discusses Cornelius's role in the evolution of his groundbreaking series from a small all black 1970s television show to a lucrative brand name applying not only to the program but also to awards and various merchandise in the present day The first two chapters focus on Cornelius s years in Chicago and the initial launching of Soul Train in 1970 The next two chapters explore how the nationally televised California based version of the show rose steadily in both popularity and cultural influence among primarily African American viewers and how Cornelius himself became a rising celebrity during that time The final chapters illustrate Cornelius s efforts in branching out beyond the dance show through various music related business ventures including the Soul Train Music Awards The work includes interviews with several former cast members and guests along with a complete chronology of the series and Cornelius s other professional ventures Billboard ,1974-09-28 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world s premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends

TV-A-Go-Go Jake Austen,2005-07 From Elvis and a hound dog wearing matching tuxedos and the comic adventures of artificially produced bands to elaborate music videos and contrived reality show contests television as this critical look brilliantly shows has done a superb job of presenting the energy of rock in a fabulously entertaining but patently fake manner The dichotomy of fake and real music as it is portrayed on television is presented in detail through many generations of rock music the Monkees shared the charts with the Beatles Tupac and Slayer fans voted for corny American Idols and shows like Shindig and Soul Train somehow captured the unhinged energy of rock far more effectively than most long haired guitar smashing acts Also shown is how TV has often delighted in breaking the rules while still mostly playing by them Bo Diddley defied Ed Sullivan and sang rock and roll after he had been told not to the Chipmunks subversive antics prepared kids for punk rock and things got out of hand when Saturday Night Live invited punk kids to attend a taping of the band Fear Every aspect of the idiosyncratic history of rock and TV and their peculiar relationship is covered including cartoon rock music programming for African American audiences punk on television Michael Jackson s life on TV and the tortured history of MTV and its progeny Billboard ,1974-09-28 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world s premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends
