Kahlil Joseph and the Audiovisual Atlantic Joe Jackson, 2024-07-11 It's wonderful to read a book that ranges across music cinema music video art and literature with such ease One of the beautiful things about this book is that it is really attentive to relationships and this is particularly clear when talking about Kahlil Joseph's creative mentors and comrades including Arthur Jafa and Terrence Malick Tsitsi Ella Jaji Helen S Bevington Associate Professor of Modern Poetry Associate Professor of African American Studies Duke University USA Kahlil Joseph has collaborated with musicians FKA twigs Flying Lotus Sampha and Shabazz Palaces among many others He has directed numerous films music videos and advertisements across Africa America and Europe The award winning filmmaker's disruptive style which frequently merges visual representations of transcontinental experiences with the countercultural energies of Afrodiasporic music challenges the Eurocentric biases underpinning Western media At the same time his works generate various contradictions and tensions because they are themselves products situated within an economic framework of neoliberal capitalism at once offering alternative ways of being while simultaneously participating in and thereby sustaining the social structures that they otherwise seek to subvert and dismantle This is the first book length study of Kahlil Joseph's work Distinguishing the artist's personal and professional personas it traces Joseph's career trajectory and artistic output emphasizing how the director's construction of a multifaceted filmmaking persona operates in tandem with his artworks to challenge fixed unidimensional or stable notions of identity Through biographical study and deep examinations of the director's respective transmedia artworks this book draws from various discussions shaped by Paul Gilroy's ground breaking text The Black Atlantic 1993 By applying

The Black Atlantic's disruptive audiocentric ideas to contemporary digital media forms generated by Kahlil Joseph and his peers alike this book challenges the latent Eurocentricity on which dominant theorizations of modernity as well as the overlapping fields of Film Media and Screen Studies are grounded. In turn it offers an alternative framework for negotiating the paradoxes, contradictions and transnational flows of our media saturated present, namely the Audiovisual Atlantic. This book has been selected as runner up for Best First Monograph 2025 by BAFTSS British Association of Film Television and Screen Studies.

Music, the Moving Image and Ireland, 1897-2017 John O'Flynn, 2021-12-30. Music, the Moving Image and Ireland 1897-2017 constitutes the first comprehensive study of music for screen productions from or relating to the island. It identifies and interprets tendencies over the first 120 years of a field comprising the relatively distinct yet often overlapping areas of Irish-themed and Irish-produced film. Dividing into three parts, the book first explores accompaniments and scores for 20th-century Irish-themed narrative features that resulted in significant contributions by many Hollywood British, continental European and to a lesser extent Irish composers along with the input of many orchestras and other musicians. Its second part is framed by a consideration of various cultural, political and economic developments in both the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland from the 1920s including the Troubles of 1968-1998. Focusing on scoring and other aspects of soundtrack production for domestic newsreel, documentary film and TV programming, it interprets the substantial output of many Irish composers within this milieu, particularly from the 1960s to the 1990s. Also referring to broader cultural and historical themes, the book's third and final part charts approaches to and developments in music and sound design over various waves of Irish cinema from its relatively late emergence in the 1970s to an exponential growth and increasingly transnational orientation in the early decades of the 21st century.

Sounds and the City B. Lashua, K. Spracklen, S. Wagg, 2014-05-27. This book explores the ways in which Western-derived music connects with globalization, hybridity, consumerism and the flow of cultures. Both as local terrain and as global crossroads, cities remain fascinating spaces of cultural contestation and meaning-making via the composing, playing, recording and consumption of popular music.

Johnny Cash and the Paradox of American Identity Leigh H. Edwards, 2009-02-25. Throughout his career, Johnny Cash has been depicted and has depicted himself as a walking contradiction: social protestor and establishment patriot, drugged wildman and devout Christian, crusader, rebel, outlaw, hillbilly, thug and elder statesman. Leigh H. Edwards explores the allure of this paradoxical image and its cultural significance. She argues that Cash embodies irresolvable contradictions of American identity that reflect foundational issues in the American experience such as the tensions between freedom and patriotism, individual rights and nationalism, the sacred and the profane. She illustrates how this model of ambivalence is a vital paradigm for American popular music and for American identity in general. Making use of sources such as Cash's autobiographies, lyrics, music liner notes and interviews, Edwards pays equal attention to depictions of Cash by others such as Vivian Cash's publication of his letters to her, documentaries and music journalism about him, Walk the Line and fan club
