Discourses of Slavery and Abolition B. Carey, M. Ellis, S. Salih, 2004-05-25 Discourses of Slavery and Abolition brings together for the first time the most important strands of current thinking on the relationship between slavery and categories of writing oratory and visual culture in the long Eighteenth century The book begins by examining writing about slavery and race by both philosophers and by authors such as Aphra Behn It considers self representation in the works of Ignatius Sancho Olaudah Equiano James Williams and Mary Prince The final section reads literary and cultural texts associated with the abolition movements of the Eighteenth and Nineteenth centuries moving beyond traditional accounts of the documents of that movement to show the importance of religious writing children's literature and the relationship between art and abolition

The Atlantic Slave Trade in World History Jeremy Black, 2024-02-05 Now in its second edition The Atlantic Slave Trade in World History has been updated to include recent scholarship and an analysis of how debates have changed in light of recent key events such as the Black Lives Matter movement Primarily focused on the Atlantic Slave Trade this study places slavery within a broader world context and includes significant detailed coverage of Africa With a chronological approach it guides students through the origins of the Atlantic Slave Trade to its expansion and eventual abolition Its final chapters explore the legacy of the Atlantic Slave Trade by comparing it to other systems of slavery outside of the Atlantic region and analyze the persistence of modern day slavery As well as offering an analysis of historiography the updated bibliography and conclusion which considers the recent Black Lives Matter protests and their aftermath provide a fresh account of how slavery has shaped our understanding of the modern world Unmatched in its breadth of information chronological sweep and geographical coverage The Atlantic Slave Trade in World History is the most useful introductory resource for all students who study the Atlantic Slave Trade in a world context Abolition Seymour Drescher,2009-07-27 In one form or another slavery has existed throughout the world for millennia It helped to change the world and the world transformed the institution In the 1450s when Europeans from the small corner of the globe least enmeshed in the institution first interacted with peoples of other continents they created in the Americas the most dynamic productive and exploitative system of coerced labor in human history Three centuries later these same intercontinental actions produced a movement that successfully challenged the institution at the peak of its dynamism Within another century a new surge of European expansion constructed Old World empires under the banner of antislavery However twentieth century Europe itself was inundated by a new system of slavery larger and more deadly than its earlier system of New World slavery This book examines these dramatic expansions and contractions of the institution of slavery and the impact of violence economics and civil society in the ebb and flow of slavery and antislavery during the last five centuries The World of Colonial America Ignacio Gallup-Diaz,2017-04-28 The World of Colonial America An Atlantic Handbook offers a comprehensive and in depth survey of cutting edge research into the communities cultures and colonies that comprised colonial America with a focus on the processes through which communities were created destroyed and recreated that were at the heart of the Atlantic experience With contributions written by leading scholars from a variety of viewpoints the book explores key topics such as The Spanish French and Dutch Atlantic empires The role of the indigenous people as imperial allies trade partners and opponents of expansion Puritanism Protestantism Catholicism and the role of religion in colonization The importance of slavery in the development of the colonial economies The evolution of core areas and their relationship to frontier zones The emergence of the English imperial state as a hegemonic world power after 1688 Regional developments in colonial North America Bringing together leading scholars in the field to explain the latest research on Colonial America and its place in the Atlantic World this is an important reference for all advanced students researchers and professionals working in the field of early American history or the age of empires The Letters of Sarah Scott Vol 2 Nicole Pohl,2024-08-01 Sarah Robinson Scott was a writer translator and social reformer While Scott s legacy presents her as a committed Anglican philanthropist the letters she wrote reveal her to have been a witty even savage commentator on eighteenth century life This is the first edition of Scott s letters to be published and presents all extant copies Victorian Material Culture Adelene Buckland,2022-07-14 From chatelaines to whale blubber ice making machines to stained glass this six volume collection will be of interest to the scholar student or general reader alike anyone who has an urge to learn more about Victorian things The set brings together a range of primary sources on Victorian material culture and discusses the most significant developments in material history from across the nineteenth century The collection will demonstrate the significance of objects in the everyday lives of the Victorians and addresses important questions about how we classify and categorise nineteenth century things The fourth volume will look at raw materials that were handled and used by Victorians including blubber and coal

Humanitarianism, empire and transnationalism, 1760-1995 Joy Damousi, Trevor Burnard, Alan Lester, 2022-03-08 This is the first book to examine the shifting relationship between humanitarianism and the expansion consolidation and postcolonial transformation of the Anglophone world across three centuries from the antislavery campaign of the late eighteenth century to the role of NGOs balancing humanitarianism and human rights in the late twentieth century Contributors explore the trade offs between humane concern and the altered context of colonial and postcolonial realpolitik They also showcase an array of methodologies and sources with which to explore the relationship between humanitarianism and colonialism These range from the biography of material objects to interviews as well as more conventional archival enquiry They also include work with and for Indigenous people whose family histories have been defined in large part by humanitarian interventions
