The North British Review ,1862 The Broadview Anthology of British Literature Volume 6A: The Twentieth Century and Beyond: From 1900 to Mid Century Joseph Black, Leonard Conolly, Kate Flint, Isobel Grundy, Don LePan, Roy Liuzza, Jerome J. McGann, Anne Lake Prescott, Barry V. Qualls, Claire Waters, 2008-05-22 In all six of its volumes The Broadview Anthology of British Literature presents British literature in a truly distinctive light Fully grounded in sound literary and historical scholarship the anthology takes a fresh approach to many canonical authors and includes a wide selection of work by lesser known writers The anthology also provides wide ranging coverage of the worldwide connections of British literature and it pays attention throughout to issues of race gender class and sexual orientation It includes comprehensive introductions to each period providing in each case an overview of the historical and cultural as well as the literary background It features accessible and engaging headnotes for all authors extensive explanatory annotations throughout and an unparalleled number of illustrations and contextual materials offering additional perspectives both on individual texts and on larger social and cultural developments Innovative authoritative and comprehensive The Broadview Anthology of British Literature embodies a consistently fresh approach to the study of literature and literary history The full Broadview Anthology of British Literature comprises six bound volumes together with an extensive website component the latter has been edited annotated and designed according to the same high standards as the bound book component of the anthology and is accessible through the broadviewpress.com website by using the passcode obtained with the purchase of one or more of the bound volumes Highlights of Volume 6 The Twentieth Century and Beyond include Joseph Conrad's The Secret Sharer An Outpost of Progress an essay on the Titanic and a substantial range of background materials including documents on the exploitation of central Africa that set An Outpost of Progress in vivid context and a large selection of late twentieth and early twenty first century writers such as Ian McEwan Kazuo Ishiguro and Zadie Smith For the convenience of those whose focus does not extend to the full period covered in the final volume of The Broadview Anthology of British Literature Volume 6 The Twentieth Century and Beyond that volume is now available either in its original one volume format or in this alternative two volume format with Volume 6a The Early Twentieth Century extending to the end of WWII and Volume 6b The Late Twentieth Century and Beyond covering from WWII into the present century American and British Authors Frank Van Buren Irish, 1896 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1897 The Odyssey of a Woman Field Scientist JEAN H. LANGENHEIM, 2010-02-22 Here Jean Langenheim presents her odyssey as a woman field scientist who crossed boundaries of botany geology and chemistry in doing ecological studies The book includes almost two hundred photographs and maps and uses a unique timeline as context for her story in relation to relevant historical events significant changes in the status of women and milestones in ecology from the 1920s to the present Her research spans five continents and ranges from arctic alpine to tropical environments It includes many adventures such as a forced plane landing in Amazonia and working in the midst of a coup d'etat in Colombia and interactions with diverse cultures from Alaska Eskimo to Ghanaian family life She tells the story of a rich life of learning and discovery through difficult and good times which she has shared with her husband and later with her students colleagues and many friends many around the world

INITIAL REVIEW STATEMENTS Anyone who reads this rich and wonderfully interesting memoir will be inspired by what Jean Langenheim has accomplished scientifically and personally during her long and distinguished career at the interface of multiple scientific fields This is more than a personal memoir by a leading scientist It is a deeply insightful reflection on how major scientific disciplines have developed over the past half century and how the culture of scientific research itself has changed

John Thompson Distinguished Professor of Ecology and Evolution University of California Santa Cruz quoted in UCSC press release <http://press.ucsc.edu/text.asp?pid=3771> The title of this good read is truly apropos it is an odyssey of the mind as well as life of a self confessed adventurous woman someone always open to the next chapter in an ever changing life lived during a period of significant social and technological changes There's a solid dose of real scientific research and discovery tempered by the authors vivid descriptions of her travels of the wonders of the natural world and of the cultures she encounters in some amazing places she finds herself Provocatively you may recognize and view elements of your own life in ways you never thought about before

Susan Martin retired researcher US Department of Agriculture Colorado State University I liked very much your life metaphor about weaving threads in your life tapestry It was delightful to read how those threads were constructed and woven Your life has been very rich impacting and inspiring many people with your thoughts and action
