

A photograph of a person with curly, light-colored hair, seen from the back and slightly to the side. They are wearing a bright red jacket. On the back of the jacket, there is a white, diamond-shaped patch with the words "Lost Americana" printed in a bold, black, serif font. The person is standing behind a blue, pointed-top fence. The background is a clear blue sky with some power lines and a utility pole visible on the left.

living as the ones before it or to support our growing seniors population Meeting our public sector pension obligations will break the current social safety net that is a pillar of the Canadian way Can you escape this bleak future Can you afford to live longer Nationally recognized pension expert Bill Tufts and award winning journalist Lee Fairbanks explore how this catastrophe came about and then suggest ways that government can fix what's broken and how you as an individual can protect yourself from the financial calamity that is about to engulf Canada

BOOK An urgent and illuminating examination of the unrelenting housing crisis Canadians find ourselves facing by Balsillie Prize finalist and CBC Radio host Gregor Craigie Our Crumbling Foundation offers real life solutions from around the world and hope for new housing innovation in the face of seemingly impossible obstacles Canada is experiencing a housing shortage Although house prices in major Canadian cities appeared to have topped out new housing isn't coming onto the market quickly enough Higher interest rates have only tightened the pressure on buyers and renters too as rising mortgage rates cost landlords more which are passed along to tenants in rent increases Even with recent federal budget commitments to bring more housing online by 2030 there will still be a shortfall of 3.5 million homes by then Gregor Craigie is a CBC journalist in Victoria one of the highest priced housing markets in the country On his daily radio show On The Island he's been talking for over 17 years to local experts and to those across the country about housing Craigie has travelled to many of the places he profiles in the book and in his interviews with Canadians he presents the human face of the shortfall as he speaks with renters owners and homeless people exploring their varying predicaments and perspectives He then shows through comparable profiles of people across the globe how other North American and international jurisdictions Tokyo Paris Berlin Helsinki Singapore Ireland to name a few are housing their citizens better faster and with determination solutions that could be put into practice here With passion knowledge and vigour Craigie explains how Canada reached this critical impasse and will convince those who may not yet recognize how badly our entire country is in need of change Our Crumbling Foundation provides hope for finding our way out of the crisis by recommending a number of approaches at all levels of government The prescription for how we're going to house ourselves and do so equitably requires not just a business solution nor simply a social solution but rather a combination of both working hand in hand with all levels of government and quickly in order to catch up with and outpace the needs of Canadians in this ever intensifying crisis over a basic human right
