Sunstone Poesia:

Dancing on the Sun Stone Marjorie Becker, 2024-05-01 Dancing on the Sun Stone is a uniquely transdisciplinary work that fuses modern Latin American history and literature to explore women's lives and gendered politics in Mexico. In this important work, scholar Marjorie Becker focuses on the complex Mexican women of rural Michoacán who performed an illicit revolutionary dance and places it in dialogue with Nobel Prize winner Octavio Paz's signature poem Sun Stone, allowing a new gendered history to emerge. Through this dialogue, the women reveal intimate and intellectual complexities of Mexican women's gendered voices, their histories, and their intimate and public lives. The work further demonstrates the ways these women in dialogue with Paz transformed history itself. Becker's multigenre work reconstructs Mexican history through the temporal experiences of crucial Michoacán females' experiences that culminate in their complex revolutionary dance, which itself emerges as a transformative revolutionary language.

Understanding Octavio Paz Jose Quiroga, 1999 In this comprehensive examination of the work of Octavio Paz, winner of the 1990 Nobel Prize for Literature and Mexico's important literary and cultural figure, Jose Quiroga presents an analysis of Paz's writings in light of works by and about him. Combining broad erudition with scholarly attention to detail, Quiroga views Paz's work as an open narrative that explores the relationships between the poet, his readers, and his time.
