M. Coetzee, 1992 Nadine Gordimer has written of J M Coetzee that his vision goes to the nerve centre of being What he finds there is more than most people will ever know about themselves and he conveys it with a brilliant writer s mastery of tension and elegance Doubling the Point takes the reader to the center of that vision These essays and interviews documenting Coetzee s longtime engagement with his own culture and with modern culture in general constitute a literary autobiography J. M. Coetzee and the Politics of Style Jarad Zimble, 2014-06-23 J M Coetzee s early novels confronted readers with a brute reality stripped of human relation and a prose repeatedly described as spare stark intense and lyrical In this book Jarad Zimble explores the emergence of a style forged in Coetzee s engagement with the complexities of South African culture and politics Tracking the development of this style across Coetzee s first eight novels from Dusklands to Disgrace Zimble compares Coetzee s writing with that of South African authors such as Gordimer Brink and La Guma whilst re examining the nature of Coetzee s indebtedness to modernism and postmodernism In each case he follows the threads of Coetzee s own writings on stylistics and rhetoric in order to fix on those techniques of language and narrative used to activate a politics of style In so doing Zimble challenges long held beliefs about Coetzee s oeuvre and about the ways in which contemporary literatures of the world are to be read and understood
