A Celebration of English Wine Liz Sagues, 2018-03-26 English wine has greatly changed in recent years. Royalty and heads of government drink it and pour it for foreign dignitaries, and it is sold to some thirty wine-drinking nations and even beats champagne in blind tasting challenges. Its main grape varieties are major international names, and its makers are skilled professionals. From a largely amateur instigated cottage industry, it has become an increasingly serious quality-led commercial proposition, one that regularly makes news at home and abroad. This book explains why and how that has come about, telling the story of winemaking in England from the Romans to the present era. Most of all, it celebrates the wine itself and the people who make it. Its pages take readers on a virtual tour of many of the UK's most significant vineyards, long established or comparatively new, in the southern heartland of vine growing, on the western and northern fringes, or at points in between. The reader will meet men and women whose expertise, character, and belief have created wines of which all Britons can be truly proud. Foreword by Oz Clarke

The Urban Vineyard Paul Olding, 2015 A guide to growing grapes in your garden, on an allotment, or other urban space, and making delicious home-made wine. This book tells the story of amateur vintner and vigneron Paul Olding as he follows his dream to establish a successful urban vineyard in the suburbs of southeast London An award winning television producer and director by day for years Paul harboured a dream of setting up a vineyard somewhere close to home home being the suburbs of London But was it possible to grow grapes and make fabulous wine in the sub urban jungle He decided to give it a go With the help of his family Paul realised his dream and now shares his experience so you too can create your own urban vineyard

Wines of Britain and Ireland Stephen Skelton, 2003-01-01 Over recent decades winemaking in Ireland and the United Kingdom has come a long way No longer viewed as an eccentric hobby of the few it has become a valuable industry producing wines of the highest quality These wines are provoking renewed interest and optimism and the vineyards once seen as curiosities are now considered seriously world class Stephen Skelton an award winning winegrower and winemaker and a well respected wine writer acknowledges these developments in this long awaited book which explores the winemaking of England Ireland Wales and the Channel Islands He provides a definitive viticultural history of Britain from its pre Roman beginnings to the robust optimism it enjoys today There are full descriptions of all the vine varieties grown together with explanations of the viticultural techniques and the winemaking processes being developed to suit Britain's unique conditions The book's core feature is a comprehensive region by region guide to more than 250 vineyards with full details of location owner and growers winemakers grape varieties wine sales and opening times

The Wines of Great Britain Stephen Skelton, 2024-02-07 A comprehensive survey of the history of Great Britain's wines as well as the current state of the wine industry and its future prospects. A large part of this book contains detailed producer profiles including large producers such as Nyetimber and Chapel Down, medium and small producers, brand only and organic and biodynamic producers. Great Britain is a premium wine producing region with around 650 vineyards in England and Wales covering some 2 750 hectares and producing sparkling and still wines. English and Welsh wines have won many prestigious awards recently and Stephen Skelton is the leading authority on the wines of the UK. The Wines of Great Britain is a comprehensive survey of the history of UK wines as well as of the current state of the wine industry and its future prospects. After a short introduction showing where UK wine is in 2019 and where it might go in the future, Skelton considers the history of winemaking in the UK from King Alfred in the fifth century through the medieval period to recent developments in the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. The Wines of Great Britain then takes us on a tour of contemporary viticulture and winemaking, examining trends in plantings and vineyard layout, varieties, rootstocks and clones, vineyard sizes, modern wineries and styles of wine. Skelton considers regional identities as well as the branding of UK sparkling wines and their market position. A substantial part of this important book is the 21 detailed biographies of the most important, exciting and innovative producers and the wines they create. Wine businesses profiled in detail include Breaky Bottom, Chapel Down, Nyetimber, Oxney Organic Estate, Sixteen Ridges Vineyard and Yorkshire Heart Vineyard. Shorter entries on other significant or up and coming producers also feature.

The Wine Pioneers Anton Massel, 2008 At first there were the horticulturists and wine growers, then came the wine makers, the coopers and the cellar masters. Inevitably there were wine shippers and wine merchants. Chemists and biologists added their skills in the past two centuries and only very recently came the oenologists and the professional wine tasters. Wine writers play an important role in today's wine trade and there were always wine connoisseurs and wine snobs. From 5000BC to the modern day, this book provides a chronological history of the wine pioneers through the ages.

The Oxford Companion to Wine Julia Harding MW, Jancis Robinson OBE MW, Tara Q. Thomas, 2023-08-15 Everything you could possibly want to know about wine in one fully up to date A-Z volume. The Oxford Companion to Wine is a uniquely comprehensive and in depth A-Z reference book on every aspect of wine: more than 4 000 entries covering topics from history through geography, geology, soil science, viticulture, winemaking, packaging, academia, technology and regulations to people and places, tasting, writing and the language of wine. The system of cross references takes the reader from one entry to another, showing how all these topics are interconnected in the fascinating story of wine in its most traditional and modern forms. This new fifth edition, which benefits from the knowledge and experience of over one hundred new contributors, all experts in their field or geographical region, is expanded by 272 new entries and every existing entry has been reviewed, updated and polished. The text is more international than ever written for wine lovers of every persuasion, including those who love wine but want to know more in order to increase their enjoyment of this endlessly fascinating liquid and those who are intent on studying wine professionally or privately This is a huge treasure trove of knowledge for the first time breaking the barrier of one million words but the alphabetical format and the links between the entries make it easily navigable and the language while not shying away from complex science is intended to open the door to every curious reader looking for answers on every question they have ever wanted to ask about wine The Travel Club

Goodgrog John

Schreiner, 2023-03-27 Goodgrog A Life in Wine and Journalism chronicles the life and especially the career of journalist John Schreiner who may have had one of the most enviable jobs ever wine writer. For over forty years in newspaper and magazine articles and columns and through nineteen books Schreiner has entertained and informed Canadian wine drinkers championed British Columbia wineries and helped establish the credibility of the Canadian wine industry. His research for this has involved visiting and sampling the wares of wineries across British Columbia Canada the US Europe South America Australia and New Zealand. He has also judged several prestigious wine competitions in Italy and British Columbia. But there is much more to Schreiner's story than his experience as one of Canada's leading wine writers. He begins his tale in Indian Head Saskatchewan where he was born in the latter years of the Depression. From there he takes readers along his journey as a journalist at the Regina Leader Post and finally the Financial Post where he covered some of Western Canada's biggest business stories and had the opportunity to travel the world doing economic reports. Filled with anecdotes from both his private and professional life as well as with stories about the Canadian wine industry and some of British Columbia's more colourful politicians and business leaders this book is good to the last drop. A Landscape of Plenty: Excavations on a Roman Estate, Cambridgeshire Francis M. Morris, James E. R. Davey, 2025-08-21 Excavations near Milton Cambridgeshire revealed a late Roman agricultural complex with enclosures structures and a possible villa estate. Active from the mid 3rd to 5th century AD the site suggests surplus grain production and cattle use. The findings raise key questions about land use after Roman rule ended.
