The New Politics of the Handmade Anthea Black, Nicole Burisch, 2020-12-10 Contemporary craft art and design are inseparable from the flows of production and consumption under global capitalism The New Politics of the Handmade features twenty three voices who critically rethink the handmade in this dramatically shifting economy The authors examine craft within the conditions of extreme material and economic disparity a renewed focus on labour and materiality in contemporary art and museums the political dimensions of craftivism neoliberalism and state power efforts toward urban renewal and sustainability the use of digital technologies and craft s connections to race cultural identity and sovereignty in texts that criss cross five continents They claim contemporary craft as a dynamic critical position for understanding the most immediate political and aesthetic issues of our time

The Early Iron Age Cemetery at Torone John K.

Papadopoulos, 2005-12-31 Recipient of the Jo Anne Stolaroff Cotsen Prize This volume publishes the excavation and analysis of the Early Iron Age cemetery at Torone in Chalkidike in the north Aegean Greece Spanning the period between the twelfth or eleventh century down to ca 850 BC the cemetery represents one of the few burial grounds of the period in Greece to have been excavated virtually in its entirety yielding 134 tombs of which 118 were cremations and 16 inhumations

The Inner Lives of Ancient Houses Jennifer A. Baird, 2014 Dura Europos on the Syrian Euphrates is one of the best preserved and most extensively excavated sites of the Roman world A Hellenistic foundation later held by the Parthians and then the Romans Dura had a Roman military garrison installed within its city walls before it was taken by the Sasanians in the mid third century The Inner Lives of Ancient Houses is the first study to consider the houses of the site as a whole The houses were excavated by a team from Yale and the French Academy of Inscriptions and Letters in the 1920s and 30s and though a wealth of archaeological and textual material was recovered most of that relating to housing was never published Through a combination of archival information held at the Yale University Art Gallery and new fieldwork with the Mission Franco Syrienne d'Europos Doura this study re evaluates the houses of the site integrating architecture artefacts and textual evidence and examining ancient daily life and cultural interaction as well as considering houses which were modified for use by the Roman military
