The New Radical Autobiography:

A History of Hope NA NA,2016-09-27 This book chronicles American history through the stories of the individuals and movements that dreamed of a better future and then took action to make that dream a reality arguing that the much heralded American spirit was not born as a gift of our founding but was forged through our adversity and triumphs From colonial revolutionaries to abolitionists labor organizers to suffragists progressives to civil rights activists it was individuals and movements who dared to go against the American majority that both guarded and created our best national self

A Memoir of the New Left Charles Atkinson Haynie,2009 In Charles Haynie s autobiography we get a rare look into the development of a great social movement through the quietly dramatic experiences of a rank and file member of that movement This is valuable social history but more important Charles Haynie s life is an inspiration for a new generation Howard Zinn Charles Haynie s life as an activist and organizer began while he was a graduate student at Cornell University Young fiercely intelligent and spirited Haynie had a political awakening during the early antinuclear movement in the late 1950s It was the beginning of a long career of tireless fighting for social justice a career that Haynie himself compellingly describes in A Memoir of the New Left From 1963 to 1965 Haynie was field director for a voter registration project in Tennessee In 1967 he worked with Massachusetts Political Action for Peace as an organizer of antiwar delegations in all twelve congressional districts of the state Haynie also ran for a Buffalo Common Council seat in 1979 and helped organize the Buffalo Unity Day rally to ease racial tensions During his most intense period of political activism Haynie helped organize participated in and was arrested during the Freedom Rides in which scores of civil rights protesters rode buses throughout the segregated South Later he participated in a variety of intentional communities designed to educate and support oppressed minorities in rural and urban areas He died in 2001 Unlike other histories of the American left which tend to celebrate famous personalities Haynie s memoir focuses on how ordinary citizens become politicized In the process this account raises questions about the nature of democracy and how political change occurs Written in an engaging reflective often humorous style Haynie examines how his political awakening both disrupted and enriched his personal life Aeron Haynie the daughter of Charles Haynie is associate professor of English at the University of Wisconsin Green Bay She is the coeditor with Pamela Gilbert and Marlene Tromp of Mary Elizabeth Braddon in Context and the coeditor with Regan Gurung and Nancy Chick of Exploring Signature Pedagogies Timothy S Miller lives in Dallas Texas with his wife and daughter He s been a ranch hand waiter contract driver professional clown and spent ten years in global wealth management Douglas Dowd was a longtime professor at Cornell University before his retirement An economic historian and political activist his most recent books include Capitalism and Its Economics A Critical History and Understanding Capitalism Critical Analysis from Karl Marx to Amartya Sen

A Cultural History of the Radical Sixties in the San Francisco Bay Area Anthony Ashbolt,2015-10-06 The San Francisco Bay Area was a meeting point for radical politics and counterculture in the 1960s

Until now there has been little understanding of what made political culture here unique This work explores the development of a regional culture of radicalism in the Bay Area one that underpinned both political protest and the counterculture

Gender & Life Narratives Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2023-01-23 In this book we will study about gender and life narratives It focuses on autobiographies memoirs and storytelling as tools to understand gendered experiences and societal roles

Apartheid Spies and the Revolutionary Underground Billy Keniston, 2024-11 On 28 June 1984 a parcel bomb sent by the apartheid security police exploded in an apartment building in Lubango Angola killing 36 year old Jeanette Schoon and her six year old daughter Katryn The Schoons were members of the revolutionary underground exiled from South Africa and committed to both the African National Congress and to socialism What many political activists had feared or suspected at the time was confirmed during the 1990s Truth and Reconciliation Commission the bomb targeting the Schoons was sent by Craig Williamson an apartheid spy and high ranking member of the South African security service Apartheid Spies and the Revolutionary Underground is the first book length account of the assassination of Jeanette and Katryn Schoon Jeanette Curtis Schoon and Craig Williamson first met in 1973 on the Wits University campus Jeanette was a passionate student radical and part of a network of white radicals fighting apartheid Williamson had successfully infiltrated the student movement and rose within its ranks He held positions of trust first within the National Union of South African Students NUSAS and then after pretending to flee the country as an office bearer of the International Universities Exchange Fund in Sweden which helped fund many South Africans in exile The book uncovers how the lives of a group of white radicals intersected with and were impacted by the undercover security police and their operations both within and outside of South Africa Intensifying political oppression caused many young radicals to flee South Africa in 1976 many of them like Jeanette and her partner Marius Schoon joined the African National Congress in exile Williamson and the Schoons paths and those of their comrades continued to cross he was a guest in their homes a supplier of funds for their projects a witness for the prosecution in political trials and ultimately the hand that directed targeted assassinations Williamson received amnesty for his role in the Schoons murder among other crimes For the friends and family of the Schoons and for all those seeking social justice this was an unacceptable outcome and Williamson continues to walk a free man This book attempts to show the limits of the TRC process to render healing from South Africa's apartheid past That justice has not been served to the Schoons remains a tragedy in this story of the struggle against apartheid

Writing Gender Writing Self Aparna Lanjewar Bose, 2020-05-06 Life Writings Narratives and studies in gender have been posing critical challenges to fetishizing the manner of canon formations and curriculum propriety This book engages with these and other challenges turning our customary gaze towards women especially marginal enabling us to interrogate the established pedagogical practices that accentuates the continuing denial of their agency Reproduction of the cultural modes of narrativization based on memory and experience becomes a mode of reclaiming the agency These challenge the homogenising singularity of communitarian notions besides dominant gender constructs using visual textual popular historical cultural and gender modes enabling one to rethink our received theoretical frameworks This edited volume brings together 21 essays on life writings produced by both well established and emerging writers in the field of literature written by scholars from countries like India Pakistan China USA Iran Yemen and Australia to name just a few Many of the essays in this book focus on how the progress of the self is often impeded by the society it finds itself in With an enlightening foreword by Dr E V Ramakrishnan and a detailed critical introduction by Aparna Lanjewar Bose this anthology is useful for all those who wish to learn more about this genre of writing The Eternally Wounded Woman Patricia Anne Vertinsky, 1990

Writing about Lives in Science Paola Govoni, Zeldia Alice Franceschi, 2014-05-14 Following discussions on scientific biography carried out over the past few decades this book proposes a kaleidoscopic survey of the uses of biography as a tool to understand science and its context It offers food for thought on the role played by the gender of the biographer and the biographee in the process of writing To provide orientation in such a challenging field some of the authors have accepted to write about their own professional experience while reflecting on the case studies they have been working on Focusing on auto biography may help us to build bridges between different approaches to men and women's lives in science The authors belong to a variety of academic and professional fields including the history of science anthropology literary studies and science journalism The period covered spans from 1732 when Laura Bassi was the first woman to get a tenured professorship of physics to 2009 when Elizabeth H Blackburn and Carol W Greider were the first women's team to have won a Nobel Prize in science History from the Bottom Up and the Inside Out James R. Barrett, 2017-08-04 James R Barrett rethinks the boundaries of American working class history by investigating the ways in which working class people's personal lives intersected with their activism and religious racial ethnic and class identities
