The Newford Stories:

The Newford Stories Charles De Lint,1999 Newford Stories Charles de Lint,2015-04-21 The Crow Girls and their kind once seen are impossible to forget Wild but curiously childlike wise and yet playful existing outside the confines of conventional morality and yet bringing hope and clarity to everyone whose lives they touch Joanne Harris author of Chocolat from her introduction to this book Charles de Lint's readers have been asking him to put together story collections featuring their favourite Newford characters The crow girls are among his best loved characters so de Lint obliged by gathering their stories all under one roof so to speak Some other members of the Newford repertory company show up here but at the forefront of each story are these two little wild girls with their big personalities This book features an introduction by Joanne Harris and an afterword by the de Lint Cover art by Tara Larsen Chang www.taralarsenchang.com These stories have all been published before Crow Girls is also available in The Very Best of Charles de Lint and in Moonlight and Vines Two Corbies in Moonlight and Vines The Buffalo Man in Tapping the Dream Tree and A Crow Girls Christmas in Muse and Reverie Make a Joyful Noise published in a limited edition by Subterranean Press has not appeared in any of his previous collections Nobody does urban fantasy better than Charles de Lint He has a gift for creating engaging fully realized characters totally believable dialogue and a feeling that magic is just around the corner He can make you believe as many as six impossible things before breakfast Amazon.com Editorial Review De Lint's elegant prose and effective storytelling continue to transform the mundane into the magical at every turn Highly recommended Library Journal Copyright 1998 Reed Business Information Inc In many hands the urban fantasy plot involving strange beings just around the corner fails dismally It does not in the hands of the reliable the inimitable de Lint Booklist de Lint clearly has no equal as an urban fantasist and very few equals among fantasists as a folklorist Booklist Charles de Lint is the modern master of urban fantasy Folktale myth fairy tale dreams urban legend all of it adds up to pure magic in de Lint's vivid original world No one does it better Alice Hoffman Charles de Lint writes like a magician He draws out the strange inside our own world weaving stories that feel more real than we are when we read them He is simply put the best Holly Black Unlike most fantasy writers who deal with battles between ultimate good and evil de Lint concentrates on smaller very personal conflicts Perhaps this is what makes him accessible to the non fantasy audience as well as the hard core fans Perhaps it's just damned fine writing Quill Quire

Flying Newford is the quintessential North American city tough and streetwise on the surface and rich with hidden magic for those who can see Now de Lint returns to this extraordinary city for a third volume of short stories set there including several never before published in book form Here is enchantment under a streetlamp the landscape of urban North America as only Charles de Lint can show it Blending Lovecraft s imagery Dunsany s poetry Carroll s surrealism and Alice Hoffman s small town strangeness wrote Interzone on Dreams Underfoot de Lint s Newford tales are a haunting mixture of human warmth and cold inevitability of lessons learned and prices to be paid At the Publisher s request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied Here Be Dragons Stefan Ekman,Stefar Ekman,2013-02-19

First in depth study of the use of landscape in fantasy literature Winner of the Mythopoeic Scholarship Award for Myth and Fantasy Studies 2016 Fantasy worlds are never mere backdrops They are an integral part of the work and refuse to remain separate from other elements These worlds combine landscape with narrative logic by incorporating alternative rules about cause and effect or physical transformation They become actors in the drama interacting with the characters offering assistance or hindrance and making ethical demands In Here Be Dragons Stefan Ekman provides a wide ranging survey of the ubiquitous fantasy map as the point of departure for an in depth discussion of what such maps can tell us about what is important in the fictional worlds and the stories that take place there With particular focus on J R R Tolkien s The Lord of the Rings Ekman shows how fantasy settings deserve serious attention from both readers and critics Includes insightful readings of works by Steven Brust Garth Nix Robert Holdstock Terry Pratchett Charles de Lint China Mi ville Patricia McKillip Tim Powers Lisa Goldstein Steven R Donaldson Robert Jordan and Neil Gaiman and Charles Vess The Year's Best Fantasy and Horror Seventh Annual Collection ,1994 The Modern Literary Werewolf Brent A. Stypczynski,2013-05-11

Throughout history from at least as far back as the Epic of Gilgamesh mankind has shown a fascination with physical transformation especially that of humans into animals Tales of such transformations appear in every culture across the course of history They have been featured in the Western world in the work of such authors as Ovid Petronius Marie de France Saint Augustine Jack Williamson Charles de Lint Charaline Harris Terry Pratchett and J K Rowling This book approaches werewolves as representations of a proposed shape shifter archetype examining with reference to earlier sources how and why the archetype has been employed in modern literature Although the archetype is in a state of flux by its very definition many common threads are linked throughout the literary landscape even as modern authors add modify and reinvent characteristics and meanings This is especially true in the work of such authors examined in this book many of whom have struck a chord with a wide range of readers and non readers around the world They seem to have tapped into something that affects their audiences on a subconscious level
