The Next Reformation Why Evangelicals Must Embrace Postmodernity:

The Next Reformation Carl Raschke, 2004-11 Demonstrates how to reconcile postmodernism with Christian faith The End of Apologetics Myron B. Penner, 2013-07-01 Christianity Today 2014 Book Award Winner 2013 Word Guild Award Apologetics Evangelism The modern apologetic enterprise according to Myron Penner is no longer valid It tends toward an unbiblical and unchristian form of Christian witness and does not have the ability to attest truthfully to Christ in our postmodern context In fact Christians need an entirely new way of conceiving the apologetic task This provocative text critiques modern apologetic efforts and offers a concept of faithful Christian witness that is characterized by love and grounded in God's revelation Penner seeks to reorient the discussion of Christian belief change a well entrenched vocabulary that no longer works and contextualize the enterprise of apologetics for a postmodern generation Who's Afraid of the Unmoved Mover? Andrew I. Shephardson, 2019-02-12 Are postmodern philosophy and Christian theology compatible A surprising number of Christian philosophers and theologians think so However these same thinkers argue that postmodern insights entail the rejection of natural theology the ability to discover knowledge about the existence and nature of God in the natural world Postmodernism they claim shows that appealing to nature to demonstrate or infer the existence of God is foolish because these appeals rely on modernity's outmoded grounds for knowledge Moreover natural theology and apologetics are often hindrances to authentic Christian faith Notions like objectivity and rationality are forms of idolatry from which Christians should repent This book carefully examines the nature of truth rationality general revelation and evangelism to show that the postmodern objections fail and that Christians ought to lovingly and faithfully use natural theology and apologetics to defend and commend the Christian faith to a world in need of the knowledge of God

Proclaiming Jesus Thomas H. L. Cornman, 2007-01-01 In the days immediately following 9/11 Joseph Stowell attended a special Chicago Prayer Breakfast He was encouraged to learn there was much interest in God and spirituality among the attendees He was troubled however by the subtle implication common among the speakers that day that Jesus with His exclusive claims was unwelcome That given the broad diversity of religions in America we now need to give up the traditions that divide those of us who believe in God Stowell left the breakfast even more determined to preach the centrality of Christ in the church Proclaiming Jesus is a collection of essays written by faculty of the Moody Bible Institute in honor of Dr Stowell that take up the message he proclaimed making it clear that every area of church life and ministry is about Jesus The Theology of Dallas Willard Gary Black, 2013-08-06 Evangelical Christianity in the United States is currently in a dramatic state of change Yet amidst this sometimes tumultuous religious environment a rather unique blend of both ancient and contemporary Christian theology has found its way into the hearts and minds of emerging generations of Christians The Theology of Dallas Willard both describes and conveys the essence of this increasingly popular and perhaps mediating view of the gospel of Jesus Christ Blending both a prophetic critique with pastoral encouragement Willard's unique understanding of the reality present within a life lived as a disciple of Jesus in the kingdom of God is attracting both new and traditional Christians to reconsider their faith A Sociology of Mystic Practices Dann Wigner, 2018-06-08 This book investigates the process of spiritual borrowing between the emergent church EC and the Christian mystical tradition From its inception the EC has displayed interest in mystic practices but the exact nature of this interest or how these practices are appropriated and reinterpreted in the EC context has not been researched My research shows that the emergent church is appropriating Christian mystic practices by investing these practices with their own theological content The practices themselves are changed to fit in their new context showing that EC belief shapes EC behavior My study adds a new case study perspective to the sociological examination of the process of spiritual borrowing especially through close inspection of how a spiritual practice changes to fit a new theological context Additionally my book contributes to the study of the complex relationship between belief and behavior Truth Considered and Applied Stewart E. Kelly, 2011-07-05 A classroom text for philosophy and theology students learning to defend Christianity with love and truth in the context of history and against the challenges of postmodernist thought The Child in American Evangelicalism and the Problem of Affluence David A. Sims, 2009-06-01 This work presents an evangelical theology of the child nurtured in the context of American evangelicalism and affluence It employs an eclectic theological critical method to produce a theological anthropology of the affluent American evangelical child AAEC through interdisciplinary evangelical engagement of American history sociology and economics Sims articulates how affluence constitutes a significant impediment to evangelical nurture of the AAEC in the discipline and instruction of the Lord Thus the problem he addresses is nurture in evangelical affluence conceived as a theological anthropological problem Nurture in the cultural matrices of the evangelical affluence generated by technological consumer capitalism in the U S impedes spiritual and moral formation of the AAEC for discipleship in the way of the cross This impediment risks disciplinary formation of the AAEC for capitalist culture cultivates delusional belief that life consists in an abundance of possessions and hinders the practice of evangelical liberation of the poor on humanity's underside The result is the AAEC's spiritual moral lack in late modernity Chapter 1 introduces the problem of the AAEC Chapters 2 and 3 provide a diachronic lens for the theological anthropology of the AAEC through critical assessment of the theological anthropologies of the child in Jonathan Edwards Horace Bushnell and Lawrence Richards Chapters 4 and 5 constitute the synchronic perspective of the AAEC Chapter 4 presents an evangelical sociology of the AAEC drawing upon William Corsaro's theory of interpretive reproductions and chapter 5 constructs an evangelical theology of the AAEC through critical interaction with John Schneider's moral theology of affluence Chapter 6 Whither the AAEC concludes with a recapitulation of the work and a forecast of possible futures for the AAEC in the twenty first century Forgiveness, Reconciliation, and Restoration Martin William Mittelstadt, Geoffrey W. Sutton, 2010-08-01 Although history is replete with tales of revenge Christian forgiveness provides an alternate response In this volume Pentecostal scholars from various disciplines offer their vision for forgiveness reconciliation and restoration The essayists offer long overdue Pentecostal perspectives through analysis of contemporary theological issues personal testimony and prophetic possibilities for restoration of individual relationships and communities Though Pentecostals remain committed to Spirit empowered witness as recorded in Luke Acts these scholars embrace a larger Lukan vision of Spirit initiated inclusivity marked by reconciliation The consistent refrain calls for forgiveness as an expression of God s love that does not demand justice but rather seeks to promote peace by bringing healing and reconciliation in relationships between people united by one Spirit

The Hyphenateds Phil Snider, 2011-12-12 Though the emergent church was once viewed as a fringe movement with little to offer established congregations it is now seen as one of the central driving forces shaping the future of postmodern Christianity in North America As an increasing number of mainline communities wonder how the emergent church influences their own structures and practices this book brings together the perspectives of several of the most prominent Hyphenated Christians i e those with one foot in the emergent conversation and the other foot in the mainline church Presbytermergents Anglimergents Luthermergents Methomergents etc With a passion for both mainline traditions and the emergent conversation Hyphenateds offer a vibrant and contagious vision of the ways in which the church might undergo the transformation necessary to faithfully embody the love of Christ in the midst of an ever changing postmodern world The contributors of this book offer wisdom from a variety of contexts and The Hyphenateds reflects the changing dynamics currently taking place in the emergent conversation
