

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Nikos Kazantzakis has been acclaimed by Albert Schweitzer and Thoreau as one of the great writers of modern Europe. He was born in Crete in 1883 and studied at the University of Athens, where he received the Degree of Law degree. Later he studied in Paris, under the philosopher Henri Bergson, and he completed his studies in literature and philosophy during four visits to Germany and Italy. Before World War II he lived on the Island of Naxos, where he devoted himself to literary and philosophical work. For a time while in 1942 he was Greek Minister of Education.

He is best known in the United States as the author of three widely read novels: Zorba the Greek, The Greek Passion, and Freedom or Death. But he was also a dramatic, versatile, poet, and travel writer. He died in Thessalonika, Greece, on October 26, 1957.
