The Gumdiggers Alfred Hamish Reed,1978 The Gumdigger Alfred Hamish Reed,1948 This book provides a comprehensive account of the Kauri gumfields and gumdiggers It is interwoven with an account of an expedition in 1947 during which Alfred Reed the author was himself a gumdigger It chronicles his gumdigging adventures while camped on lonely Mount Camel and later activities at the extreme north western tip of New Zealand Descriptions are provided of the methods of extraction of the gum and the lives of those who worked on the gumfields The Story of the Kauri Alfred Hamish Reed,1964 Oral History and Public Memories Paula Hamilton,Linda Shopes,2009-08-21 Understanding how individual perspectives on history build collective memory Coates of the Kaipara Fay Hercock,2013-11-01 In the course of his political career Gordon Coates 1878 1943 experienced the extremes of popular adulation and contempt Handsome young and debonair with the common touch he was a successful minister in the early 1920s and seemed full of promise when he became Prime Minister in 1925 on the death of W F Massey Ten years later after serving as Minister of Finance in the coalition government during the Depression his reputation had sunk to its lowest ebb He went on to serve with distinction in the War Cabinet winning the confidence and respect of former Labour opponents Dying suddenly in 1943 he left many friends and supporters who to this day regard him as one of New Zealand s political giants Michael Bassett follows his successful biography of Sir Joseph Ward with an equally readable life of this younger Prime Minister It is one of the few scholarly biographies of a figure on the right of New Zealand politics With full access to the Coates family papers and to material gathered by other researchers Bassett is able to offer a thoughtful reassessment of the achievements and failures of Coates s political career He provides clear explanations of the sometimes complex issues drawing once again on his own familiarity with the pressures and pleasures of political life The study of the politician is combined with a fascinating account of the private man including his Northland origins his farming background his gallant military service in the First World War his personal and family life and his character The Five Acre Forest Trish Nicholson,2021-09-28 In transit from the globe trotting life of an aid worker Trish Nicholson came upon an eroded dune beside a lake in New Zealand s far north and felt a strange attachment The State in New Zealand, 1840-198 Michael Bassett,2013-11-01 In this innovative study Michael Bassett historian and former politician explores how and why the state became such an active and interventionist player in New Zealand life developing subsidising and regulating the economy and protecting citizens from the cradle to the grave He looks in detail at the many schemes in which a paternalistic government became involved especially the extensive social programmes These were taken for granted by the people but from the 1960s were increasingly difficult to sustain economically By 1984 he concludes this process of intervention had to be slowed Drawing on departmental archives many not previously consulted by historians The State in New Zealand covers in a new way and with clarity and style a subject of great contemporary interest The New Story of the Kauri Alfred Hamish Reed,1964 Elderflora Jared

Farmer,2022-10-18 The epic story of the planet s oldest trees and the making of the modern world Humans have always revered long lived trees But as historian Jared Farmer reveals in Elderflora our veneration took a modern turn in the eighteenth century when naturalists embarked on a quest to locate and precisely date the oldest living things on earth The new science of tree time prompted travelers to visit ancient specimens and conservationists to protect sacred groves Exploitation accompanied sanctification as old growth forests succumbed to imperial expansion and the industrial revolution Taking us from Lebanon to New Zealand to California Farmer surveys the complex history of the world s oldest trees including voices of Indigenous peoples religious figures and contemporary scientists who study elderflora in crisis In a changing climate a long future is still possible Farmer shows but only if we give care to young things that might grow old Winner of the 2023 Jacques Barzun Prize in Cultural History Parliamentary Debates New Zealand.
