Offen, Ruth Roach Pierson, Jane Rendall, 1991-08-23 Five essays address such themes as the relationship between feminist history and women's history the use of the concept of experience the development of the history of gender demographic history and women's history and the importance of post structuralism to women's history The Century, 1915 St. Nicholas Mary Mapes Dodge, 1915 Burma, Kipling and Western Music Andrew Selth, 2016-11-03 For decades scholars have been trying to answer the question how was colonial Burma perceived in and by the Western world and how did people in countries like the United Kingdom and United States form their views This book explores how Western perceptions of Burma were influenced by the popular music of the day From the First Anglo Burmese War of 1824-6 until Burma regained its independence in 1948 more than 180 musical works with Burma related themes were written in English speaking countries in addition to the many hymns composed in and about Burma by Christian missionaries Servicemen posted to Burma added to the lexicon with marches and ditties and after 1913 most movies about Burma had their own distinctive scores Taking Rudyard Kipling's 1890 ballad Mandalay as a critical turning point this book surveys all these works with emphasis on popular songs and show tunes also looking at classical works ballet scores hymns soldiers songs sea shanties and film soundtracks It examines how they influenced Western perceptions of Burma and in turn reflected those views back to Western audiences The book sheds new light not only on the West's historical relationship with Burma and the colonial music scene but also Burma's place in the development of popular music and the rise of the global music industry In doing so it makes an original contribution to the fields of musicology and Asian Studies Lives of Circumcised and Veiled Women Debangana Chatterjee, 2023-08-11 The book unravels the politics of representation and the process of exoticising women's bodies through the prism of external gaze and knowledge production It brings out the intricacies of representational discourses around cultural practices of female circumcision FC female genital cutting FGC and Islamic veiling Focusing on crucial international legal texts and national legislation the book gives an overview of the cultural nuances in FC FGC and juxtaposes it with the Indian variation khafz The author studies the international veiling narratives that conjure up a fractured discourse containing aspects of colonialism Islamophobia and Islamic fashion and maps them with the regional variations of Islamic purdah in India The volume explores the cultural practice of khafz and purdah through narratives in India portraying how representational factors from international discourses reflect on the Indian context and vice versa Amid the world of binaries and polarised opinions the book offers a nuanced analysis of the space in between characterised by narratives from women By situating women's narratives in relation to family community state and international politics the book explores the global Indian interplay of discourses on FC FGC and Islamic veiling This volume will be of interest to scholars students and readers of gender studies feminism cultural and religious studies sociology South Asian studies and International Relations Women and Literary Narratives in

Colonial India Sukla Chatterjee, 2018-10-03 In the colonial context of South Asia there is a glaring asymmetry in the written records of the interaction between the Bengali women and their European counterparts which is indicative of the larger and the overall asymmetry of discursive power including the flow and access to information between the colonizers and their subjects This book explores the idea of gazing through literature in Colonial India Based on literary and historical analysis it focuses on four different genres of literary writing where nineteenth century Bengali women writers look back at the British colonizers In the process the European culture becomes a static point of reference and the chapters in the book show the ideological social cultural political and deeper emotional interactions between the colonized and the colonizer The book also addresses the lack of sufficient primary sources authored by Bengali women on their European counterparts by anthologizing different available genres Taking into account literary narratives from the colonized and the less represented side of the divide such as a travelogue fantasy fiction missionary text and journal articles the book represents the varying opinions and perspectives vis vis the European women Using an interdisciplinary approach charting the fields of Indology colonial studies sociology literature literary historiography South Asian feminism and cultural studies this book makes an important contribution to the field of South Asian Studies studies of empire and to Indian women s literary history Luzac & Co.'s Oriental List ,1915 The Spectator ,1915 Inscribing South Asian Muslim Women Tahera Aftab, 2008 Offers an annotated source for the study of the public and private lives of South Asian Muslim women Qur'an and Woman Amina Wadud, 1999-06-10 This book contributes a gender inclusive approach to one of the most fundamental disciplines in Islamic thought Qur'anic exegesis Wadud breaks down specific texts and key words which have been used to limit women s public and private role even to justify violence toward Muslim women revealing that their original meaning and context defy such interpretations What her analysis clarifies is the lack of gender bias precedence or prejudice in the essential language of the Qur'an Indeed her understanding of the Qur'an confirms women s equality and constitutes legitimate grounds for contesting the unequal treatment women have experienced historically and continue to experience legally in Muslim communities
