The Healing Power Of Peace And Nonviolence:

The Healing Power of Peace and Nonviolence Bernhard Häring, 1988 Diverse Voices in Modern US Moral Theology Charles E. Curran, 2019-02-15 In Charles E Curran s latest book Diverse Voices in Modern US Moral Theology he presents the diverse voices of US Catholic moral theologians from the mid twentieth century to the present The book discusses eleven key individuals in the development and evolution of moral theology as well as the New Wine New Wineskins movement This diversity which differs from the monolithic understanding of moral theology that prevailed until recently comes from the diverse historical circumstances or Sitz im Leben of the authors Each of these theologians developed her or his approach in light of these circumstances and in response to shifts in the three audiences of moral theology the Church the academy and the broader society By exploring this diversity Curran recognizes the deep divisions that exist within Catholic moral theology between the so called liberal and conservative approaches and acknowledges the need for greater dialogue between them providing a deeper understanding of the methods and approaches of these significant figures This new book from a major figure in the field will be an important resource for students and scholars of US Catholic moral theology and for anyone seeking to understand the current state of moral theology in America today Peacemaking and the Challenge

Soteriologies of India and Their Role in the Perception of Disability Anand Rao, 2004 At the turn of the century and the beginning of the new Millennium India has made extraordinary industrial and economic progress At the same time the sub continent is faced with innumerable problems in the area of basic social services Religion plays an important role in the interpersonal relationship and social interaction of the people Religion is not only worship and prayer but dictates such factors as who could come in physical contact with the other and who has the right to draw water from a well and who is deprived of it Because of these factors it is necessary to look at the perception of disability in the soteriologies of India This study confines itself to Hinduism as the major religion of India that is based on the achievement of salvation and thus to escape the cycle of birth death and rebirth and Christianity on the other hand that is involved in trying to improve the conditions of the poor and the needy and its main precept is the love of neighbours It would be interesting to pursue these distinctions in reviewing the perception of disability in both these religions The Healing Power of the Gospel of Peace and Nonviolence Bernhard Häring (C.S.S.R.),1986 Peacemaking Christians Michael K. Duffey,1995 In light of modern warfare and modern Catholic teaching Duffey examines and assesses three Christian approaches to peace and war Through extensive ethical analysis of the Gulf War he examines the role of the churches to avert war the use of economic sanctions and the aftereffects of the war in the Middle East Duffey also evaluates the use of military force to overcome the ethnic conflicts in Bosnia and Somalia and recent successful resolutions Nonviolent Action Ronald J. Sider,2015-02-10 There are numerous examples throughout history of effective nonviolent action Nonviolent protesters defied the Soviet Empire s communist rulers Gandhi s nonviolent revolution defeated the British Empire and Martin Luther King Jr s peaceful civil rights crusade changed American history Recent scholarship shows that nonviolent revolutions against injustice and dictatorship are actually more successful than violent campaigns In this book noted theologian and bestselling author Ron Sider argues that the search for peaceful alternatives to violence is not only a practical necessity in the wake of the twentieth century the most bloody in human history but also a moral demand of the Christian faith He presents compelling examples of how nonviolent action has been practiced in history and in current social political situations to promote peace and oppose injustice showing that this path is a successful and viable alternative to violence Military Chaplains' Review ,1988

J. Coates, 2016-01-01 The ethics of war explores the moral limits and possibilities of war in its diverse forms The feasibility of the moral limitation of war is upheld At the same time war's fragile moral potential is acknowledged and its causes sought The argument is conducted from a traditional just war standpoint which balances rules or principles against the moral capacities and dispositions of belligerents and the particular circumstances in which they act In this enlarged second edition a new introduction addresses the common criticism that traditional just war theory is incoherent outmoded and in need of radical revision Many of the problems attributed to the tradition by revisionists are seen to derive from a distortion and oversimplification of the historical tradition A fuller and more accurate understanding of that tradition can mitigate or even resolve these problems It can also help to fill the gaps left in the ethical agenda of war by analytic ethics Part I compares the conception of just war with realism militarism and pacifism Part II examines the principles of just recourse and just conduct with the aid of real life examples A new Part III discusses the propriety of defining terrorism and the ethical problems raised by particular aspects of terrorism and counterterrorism such as the tension between moral and strategic concerns the variable moral impact of different forms of terrorism the status and the moral disposition of the terrorist the treatment of noncombatants the resort to preventive war and interrogational torture and the use of drones and risk free warfare Peace - Real Power Comes from Love, not Hate Jay B Joyful, Jörg Berchem, 2025-02-07 In a world plagued by the persistent echoes of violence and conflict this profound exploration into the philosophy of Peace and pacifism emerges as a timely source of hope and transformation In this book the author reflects on the disheartening reality that despite the twenty first century's advancements humanity continues to cling to destructive patterns This book is a rallying cry for the resilience of the human spirit advocating for a paradigm shift towards Peace justice and dialogue It weaves together historical reflections philosophical insights and real world examples to
